DRUG ENDS WOMAN'S WOES

Three Persons Sought to Explain Motive for Deed

Husband of Victim Hastens From South to Death Scene

Following a suicidal attempt in Oakland, in which she was folled by underestimating her dose of poison, Mrs. Chase Garfield, wife of an automobile man of Los Angeles, fled to San Francisco and made a second attempt, resulting in her death early this morning and in a mystery which involves several men and women, and may implicate prominent people. The San Francisco authorities and the Oakland police have been enlisted in the work of clearing up the puzzle of the woman's death, and an effort is also being made to learn the identity of a mysterious woman who, finding Mrs. Garfield dying last night, summoned a doctor and then disappeared. Two men who have sent strange telephone messages to the coroner's office in San Francisco are also sought as possible keys to the mystery.

Under the name of Mrs. Mitchell, the Los Angeles woman had for more than a month maintained apartments at the Buckingham apartments, in San Francisco, the rooms being rented under the name of "Robert Mitchell and wife." A traveling man, registered at the St. Mark hotel, in this city, Mrs. Garfield swallowed bichloride of mercury tablets last evening in her San Francisco apartments and died at 5:30 o'clock this morning at the St. Francis hospital.

She had evidently spent several days in Oakland, returning to her apartments last night. A man who communicated by telephone with Coroner Leland said he and a friend had met her on a ferryboat coming to San Francisco yesterday afternoon. They had spoken to her because they were Elks, and noticed an Elk's tooth hanging to a chain around her neck.

She told them, after some conversation, that she had attempted suicide at the St. Mark hotel, in Oakland, several days before by swallowing fifty-five grains of veronal. She said also that she had appealed to friends for "help," but had not received any reply.

The man communicating with the coroner refused to give his name, but said he would call at the morgue. He added that he and his friend had aided Mrs. Garfield with her suitcase, she being so weak she could scarcely stand. This condition would probably be the result of her taking the veronal.

Why Mrs. Garfield took the poison, or whether Mitchell was present or not, have not been determined, as prior to being rushed to the hospital the woman refused to make any statement. She even declined for a half-hour to tell the attending physician what she had taken, thus wasting precious moments and baffling efforts to save her life.

WOMAN FINDS HER.

At 9 o'clock last night a fashionably dressed woman who had been in the habit of calling on the supposed Mrs. Mitchell entered the apartment, which was unlocked, and discovered Mrs. Garfield in a dazed condition. She called Dr. C. E. Hyde, who lives in the building. It was not until 9:20 that the physician obtained an admission from Mrs. Garfield that she had swallowed bichloride tablets. He had previously given her a poison antidote, but on receiving his information summoned an ambulance and hurried her to the hospital. From 10

Forrest Signs the New City Accounting Report

Commissioner of Revenue and Finance John Forrest, who has withstood for the past month the earnest pleas of a dozen city officials to place his signature on the recommendations for a new system of accounting and control, today capitulated and filed the recommendation with the city council.

The charter provides that the recommendation must come with the signature of the commissioner of finance and revenue and that of the city auditor. But Forrest carried away the honors by presenting a carbon copy of the plan with his own signature alone. The plan had been prepared by City Auditor I. H. Clay and a corps of experts. It was referred to Clay.

When asked why there had been so much delay in presenting the new system Clay said that it had been held up by Forrest. He also said that he was considering presenting the recommendations to the city council without Forrest's signature, and of asking the council to pass it over the head of the commissioner of finance and revenue. The matter had even gone so far that copies—which begin "the commissioner of finance and revenue and the city auditor recommend"—striking out the "commissioner of revenue and finance."

"I'm not going to be jammed," Forrest is reported to have said.

Clay is in a somewhat difficult position. Since the carbon copy was supplied to Forrest the experts have been working, and have found two or three minor points, which they have altered. The copy filed with the council contains no alterations. Clay is puzzled as to whether it would not be dangerous to ask Forrest to sign the amended recommendation. He is right to be so.

The proposed system was devised by the Klink-Bean Company more than two years ago after a careful study of the necessities of the municipal

"Maud Muller on a summer's day
Baked the meadows sweet with hay;
Beneath her torn hat glowed the
Of simple beauty and rustic health." —Whittier.

Oakland has discovered her "Maud Muller" and Edward Trumbull has decided from a number of photographs submitted that Miss Beatrice Garner, who works for a West Oakland factory, is the prettiest girl of all classes in this city.

No effort was made to make class distinction in the selection of this young woman. Pretty girls, rich and poor, were intermixed, and when the committee went on its tour of inspection with Trumbull, the man who will produce the handsome poster for "the Ball of Many Colors" for opening night of the Oakland auditorium on April 20, Miss Garner was selected.

There is an interesting little romance in Miss Garner's life that makes her selection as "the prettiest girl in Oakland" more than usually an entertaining subject. There was a member of the Oakland ball team, last year's season, who fell in love with the sweet-faced little factory girl—and, by the way, she is sweet 16.

Clay said that he canceled an offer with one of the eastern leagues to remain in Oakland and woo his sweetheart.

"I liked him, to be sure," said Miss Garner, "but I am a simple working girl, and somehow I prefer to be at my Oakland home, away from the annoyance of travel and excitement."

Miss Garner, who reads and studies after her day's work, added in the words of the poet who wrote the verses that made "Maud Muller" famous, "Maybe I will have to quote the lines you suggest."

"Of all sad words of tongue or pen
The saddest are these: It might have been."

CZAR READY TO INVAD HUNGARY

Vast Army to Pour Into Captured Passes, Is Plan

General Staff Now Arranging March Along San River

By Associated Press.

GENEVA, Switzerland, via Paris, April 9, 4:25 p. m.—The German government today, besides prohibiting exports from German to Italy, is stopping at the frontier stations all empty Italian freight cars bound homeward. Passenger trains arriving in Switzerland today from Italy are crowded with German families.

PETROGRAD, April 9, 12:15 p. m., via London, 2 p. m.—With the Russian force in possession of all the main summits and slopes of the Beskid mountains, army officers here assert that the Austrian operations in the Carpathians have collapsed. The Russian general staff now is considering the best approach into Hungary.

The operations centering about Mesolaboros, including the important points of Barfield, Lupkow and Ussob, appear virtually to have ended with the Austrians on the defensive along the whole line and perceptibly weakened. The deep snow which still covers the Carpathian ridges stands in the way of a rapid advance into Hungary. Once this difficulty is overcome and the Russians reach the southern slopes, where signs of spring are beginning to appear, the most serious obstacle to a further advance will be the artificial defenses which, it is assumed, have been erected.

The country between the San and Laborza rivers is considered to provide the best route. The Russian staff is of the opinion that the Germans already have transferred all available troops from other fronts to defend this region and that therefore they will be unable to offer any more formidable opposition than heretofore. On the other hand, it is expected that all the main summits and slopes of the Beskid mountains are now in the hands of the Russians.

ITALY CONTINUES PREPARATIONS

By Associated Press.

GENEVA, via Paris, April 9, 1:50 a. m.—Railroad rolling stock is being withdrawn by Italy from the Swiss frontier. It is reported here, for the transportation of troops and military stores in Northern Italy, destined for the region bordering on the Austrian Tyrol.

The Lausanne Gazette states that the towns of Mantua, Verona, Peschiera and Legnago, which formed the fortresses in the famous "Quadrilateral," are garrisoned with fully equipped troops which lack only heavy artillery and this will be supplied soon. An aerial fleet is ready for operations.

A Milan dispatch to a Zurich newspaper says that at a mass-meeting held last night and attended by five Liberal deputies from Milan, a resolution was adopted characterizing as "absolutely necessary" the participation of Italy in the war.

KING OF GREECE GIVES WAR VIEWS

By Associated Press.

ROME, April 8, 2:20 a. m., via Paris, April 8, 8 a. m.—King Constantine of Greece is quoted by the Tribune as declaring, in an interview, his belief that it will be impossible for the allies to force the Dardanelles without a combined attack by land and sea.

His majesty is said to have declared that Greece is in the same position as Italy and other nations which have made military preparations for a combined attack by land and sea.

Officials of the company declined to rescind the order and the men went on strike.

EXPECTED BOAT TO BE LOST

"Whole Thing to Go Up in Smoke Any Time," Says Lieut.'s Letter

Wrote Two Days Before Horror Off Harbor of Honolulu

LOS ANGELES, April 9.—"I expect the whole thing to go up in smoke any time," said Lieutenant Alfred Ede, of the U. S. submarine F-4, in a letter written to his brother here with reference to his vessel, just two days before it was lost in deep water off Honolulu harbor. The brother, Allison D. Ede, a city employee, gave out today a portion of the letter which he received only a day or two ago.

Mr. Ede gave out only that part of the letter referring to the condition of the F-4 before the submarine was ordered on the fatal diving trip off Honolulu.

The reference to water trucking in Mr. Ede's letter to mean that the vessel was in no condition to resist the high water pressure below the surface. Mr. Ede declared there was no truth in reports that he had placed the letter in the hands of an attorney representing either himself or the widow of his brother.

"And I do not intend to," he said. "The inquiry will be made by the government. If any one is to blame the government will find it out."

Mr. Ede said, however, that Lieutenant Ede had written that the vessel was supplied with the new motors while in dry dock. Previous reports had stated that the motors were old and worn and were therefore believed to have been responsible for the loss of the F-4.

Impeach Judges, Is Petition to Assembly

SACRAMENTO, April 9.—Speaker C. C. Young announced to the Assembly today that he had received a petition for the impeachment of two superior judges. Although he did not name them publicly, it was learned that the charges were filed against Judges Percy Wood and John York of Los Angeles county.

The statement of Speaker Young was very brief. He said:

"There has been placed in my hands a petition for the impeachment of two superior judges of the state. I have only had time to look over the papers in a cursory way, but the slight examination I have made makes me feel that the charges are frivolous and are unworthy the attention of the Assembly."

"I have given the papers to the attorney-general for further investigation, and on or before the next legislative day expect that he will advise the Assembly what its further duties are. I will bring this matter up again Monday, with the recommendation of the attorney-general."

The charges are signed by John La Peque, and relate to alleged misconduct in office of the two jurists.

Mules and Dynamite Cause Strike of Miners

By Associated Press.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., April 9.—Stubborn and unruly mules were responsible for a strike of 1200 employees of the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre Coal Company yesterday, which completely tied up the operations.

The company issued an order directing the men to enter and leave one of the veins through the main gateway instead of by outlets and cross-cuts. The miners objected to the order, declaring that they were compelled to carry dynamite into the chamber and that because of the presence of "stubborn and unruly mules in the gateway, our lives are endangered."

Officials of the company declined to rescind the order and the men went on strike.

HAWKSHAW ON TRAIL OF HAIRLESS; STOLE GALLON OF RESTORER

Driven to desperation by his lack of funds, which made it impossible for him to purchase hair tonic, a man last night forced the rear door of Claude Stringer's barber shop, 2310 Telegraph avenue, and stole a gallon of hair restorer, in which he had great faith. The police hope to trace the burglar by his lock of hair and all baldheaded men in Oakland are being watched.

Stringer has supplied the police with a list of his customers whose hair was becoming scarce and who have been accustomed to try out the various scalp foods and restorers of hirsute adornment. There are, however, customers who have not been coming to his shop for their restorer of late who have been shaving at home and whom he suspects.

MAYOR DENIES TERMINAL CLAIMS

That the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railway hold any right of ownership in the 1000-foot strip of waterfront for which the corporation holds a franchise, was categorically denied today in a formal reply made by Mayor Frank K. Mott, to requests for information made by President Max Thelen of the State Railroad Commission. Mayor Mott in his letter reviewed the history of the granting of the franchise, and set forth its terms in detail, so far as they bear upon the claim of the company that this franchise is in effect a grant of real property.

The traction company has presented a request to the railroad commission for the extension of a bond issue of $10,000,000. In making the valuation, the company set a valuation of over $3,000,000 on the acreage within the franchise granted by the city. The railroad commission asked for information as to the view taken by the city of Oakland concerning this estimate. Mayor Mott's reply follows:

April 9, 1915.

Mr. Max Thelen, President, Railroad Commission of the State of California, San Francisco, California.

Dear Sir: This will acknowledge the receipt of your letter of April 5, concerning a hearing before the railroad commission in the application of the San Francisco-Oakland Terminal Railway Company for an order authorizing the issuance of bonds and requesting the City of Oakland to supply the Commission with facts in connection with the passage of Ordinance No. 3093, which granted a franchise to that company for certain privileges on the Oakland waterfront.

HISTORY OF FRANCHISE.

In accordance with that letter, I have had a long conference with Mr. W. M. Walls of the Railroad Commission's engineering department during which I gave him, in detail, the history of this franchise as well as the facts bearing upon the Oakland waterfront situation. Confirming my conversation with Mr. Wells, I beg to submit to you the following:

For many years prior to the decision of the United States Circuit Court of Appeals in the case of the Southern Pacific Company against the City of Oakland, the "Key Route" system had been constructed and maintained under permission from the federal government as a private enterprise for the use of its ferry and train service. At the time the "Key Route" improvements were made the greater part of the waterfront lands used were under the jurisdiction of the State of California. A part of the construction was on land which had been sold by the State of California through the State Tideland Commission. The company had done a part of this work under a claim to succession in interest from Horace W. Carpenter as well as the use of its ferry and train service. It is estimated that the cost of the "Key Route" improvements was $1,000,000. The effect of the Circuit Court decision referred to above, was to return to the city of Oakland the waterfront lands used by the company for the use of its ferry and train service. The city took steps to secure from the "Key Route" system acknowledgment of the "Key Route" system had built its tracks and pier in the belief that it had a right to the waterfront franchise from the City of Oakland or permission from the State of California. After the Circuit Court decision had been rendered, the city took steps to secure from the "Key Route" system acknowledgment of the "Key Route" system.

Fugitive Takes Piano From Church; Jailed

By Associated Press.

LOS ANGELES, April 9.—Arthur Conklin, alias Arthur McDowell, who recently escaped from the city chain gang, was arrested last yesterday by police on a charge of stealing a baby grand piano from the Second United Presbyterian church here.

According to the police, Conklin engaged an auto truck, went to the church, informed the two truckmen that his father was "the parson" there and wanted "to get the son's box toted out." At the first music store Conklin, the police say, ordered a stop. At the door he met an employee and said that his "uncle" wanted to sell the piano, and asked for a bid.

The truckmen, overhearing the remark, telephoned the police, and several blocks on Conklin was arrested, charged with grand larceny.

MAFIA PLOT IN MURDER MYSTERY

Slain Man's Brother Tells Police of Strange Threats

New Clew May Clear Up Shooting in San Leandro

SAN LEANDRO, April 9.—Police investigation now is being conducted into the murder of John Cannuzzaro, a San Leandro contractor, which may reveal that he came to his death through the machinations of the Italian mafia.

Peter Cannuzzaro, brother of the murdered man has told the authorities that Cannuzzaro's life was threatened several times and that he had taken precautions against a surprise assault by enemies.

What is believed to have been an attempt to assault Cannuzzaro in his own home the night before he was murdered was reported to the investigators this morning by Peter Cannuzzaro.

Four men drove up in an automobile to John Cannuzzaro's house late Saturday evening and tried to force an entrance. Neighbors saw the men attempting to break in and set dogs on them, scaring them away. From the appearance of the four, neighbors say, they were desperadoes, and in the light of the subsequent murder it is surmised they may have been members of the Italian Black Hand, bent perhaps on taking Cannuzzaro's life.

ONE DRAWN BY LOT.

Frustrated in their attempt that night, the supposed members of the mafia may have drawn lots to decide who was to do away with Cannuzzaro. This at least is the police theory. It such were the case, the chosen lot of the gang must have dogged the doomed man about until he found a convenient opportunity to accost him alone and to pick a quarrel, which ended in the fatal shooting.

The murdered man made many bitter enemies among the rougher element in the Italian quarters on both sides of the bay during a strike, last fall.

In his dealings at that time Cannuzzaro was freely reported to have offended numbers of Italians. At that time, when several men were assaulted by strikers, there were made against Cannuzzaro, according to his brother, who believes that the hatred of his enemies, fostered by fancied wrongs, may have been intensified to the point of murder.

The disclosures of Peter Cannuzzaro have set the officers on a new trail, and startling developments are hourly expected. Search continues, meantime, for Antonio Liga, brother-in-law of the murdered man, who is wanted in connection with the shooting. The authorities still believe Liga to be in San Francisco.

departments. The city bookkeeping and accounting has been the despair of experts, as each department worked its own way and there was no successful standardization.

City Auditor Clay, who he was appointed the first of the year, reorganized the system from his shelf, and called to his aid City Treasurer Edwin Meese. Efficiency Expert W. P. Smith, the city attorney's office, and City Statistician A. V. B. Davis. The system was studied, slightly changed to adapt it to needs, and the recommendations as to the manner of installation prepared.

It was then that the controversy between Forrest and Clay arose.

The new system, as outlined, will standardize accounting in all departments, provide for an itemized budget each year, based on carefully prepared departmental estimates, and will establish for the first time in the city of Oakland a control system of accounting. The document carries a provision that the auditor shall be made ex-officio city controller.

The recommendation concludes with the following statement: "In recommending a system of uniform accounting as to all departments, and in recommending control of the totals of departmental appropriations as to expenses and outlays, the commissioner of revenue and finance and the city auditor believe they have provided for all necessary control on city finances, and for a check in the departments of the activities of the department."

"If control is not had in the council as to fixing of necessary amounts to be expended in administration and in capital expenditures (or outlays), no check is put on the department, and the department is vested with authority that properly belongs to the council."

"The control recommended does not interfere with the executive functions of the different commissioners, as it allows of transfers from one departmental account to another within a department, but it does fix responsibility in the council as a whole for the administrative functions of the city."

The benefits will be in placing complete control in the council of administrative functions; the placing of control in the heads of departments of executive functions, and the furnishing of cost accounts, and comparisons of costs and results on the various municipal activities and operations, which will enable the executives of the city to obtain larger results with the money appropriated.

troubled, but have not abandoned their neutrality. While their position is difficult, he believed their attitude would be guided by events.

King Constantine, according to the Tribune, asserted that the Greeks all over the world would return home enthusiastically to fight for the fatherland, if necessary, with the permission of her allies, obtains what she desires and comes to terms with Vienna. It is impossible to imagine that Austria would be willing to make territorial concessions to Italy.

ITALY DISCUSSES AUSTRIAN PEACE

By Associated Press.

ROME, April 8, via Paris, April 9. (4:30 a. m.)—The questions whether an understanding between Italy and Austria still is possible and whether a separate Austro-Russian peace treaty is probable are discussed from different points of view by the press of the capital. The papers agree that the questions are closely related, since, if Russia, with the permission of her allies, obtains what she desires and comes to terms with Vienna, it is impossible to imagine that Austria would be willing to make territorial concessions to Italy.

It is regarded as probable by the newspapers that reports of peace negotiations will be denied in official quarters until some tangible agreement is reached. The position of Austria, it is contended, is becoming daily more grave because of the Russian invasion and the threat of Italian intervention.

The Idea Nazionale says Austria has but little chance of regaining what she has lost and that the probabilities are she will lose more if she continues to fight, while by making peace with Russia she would avoid a further Muscovite invasion and might prevent a Serbian advance, as well as the intervention of Italy and Rumania. The paper says Austria may even hope to obtain moral and material revenge by a victorious war against Italy alone.

GERMANS PLAN TO CUT UP HOLLAND

By Associated Press.

LONDON, April 9.—A neutral correspondent of the Times who has been traveling in Germany says that among the German people, especially those of military rank and caste, the opinion is strong that nothing will prevent Antwerp and the strip of Belgian coast stretching in a line to the German frontier south of Dutch Limburg from belonging to Germany.

They agree, the correspondent says, in some cases to let the rest go, as they admit it would be a too long and difficult task for the Germans to take the whole of Belgium.

"It is also declared," the correspondent continues, "that if Germany does not take a strip of Holland during this war the time will soon be ripe for her to take Flanders and the mouth of the Scheldt with sufficient land on each side. Dutch neutrality is spoken of with the utmost contempt. Germany is making preparations on both sides of Limburg province, in view of a possible attack. Several lines of trenches have been constructed in these regions and the troops are kept ready."

"The people living in this part of the country have been advised by the military authorities to leave for Dusseldorf, Cologne or other towns farther inland in case hostilities are begun between Holland and Germany, since Germany has not sufficient troops to undertake an immediate vigorous offensive."

GERMANY TO PAY OWNERS OF FRYE

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—Secretary Bryan had before him today the reply of the German government to the recent American note regarding the destruction of the American ship William P. Frye, together with her cargo of wheat, by the German auxiliary cruiser, Prinz Eitel Friedrich, in which Germany announced her intention of compensating the owners of the Frye. The United States government had claimed an indemnity of $228,059.54.

The reply had been transmitted by Ambassador Gerard at Berlin. In which the German government declares that the sinking of the Frye was justified under international law and assumes liability for the ship and cargo as well under the treaties of 1799 and 1828. Germany declares, however, that the case will have to be taken before a prize court to establish facts regarding ownership of ship and cargo.

Germany's contention is that the Frye's cargo of wheat was contraband because it was consigned "for order" to Queenstown, declared to be a British fortified port.

Franchise Grant.

ment of the city's control of that wharfing out right without further extended litigation. Most important in this adjustment was the establishment of the line of the "Key Route" which had never been judicially determined. This line marks the line of division between privately owned and publicly owned waterfront lands. The engineer's survey had shown a meandering line and this was merely straightened out. Neither the city nor the "Key Route" owned the land shown in this line, it was absolutely necessary to establish that line.

ACKNOWLEDGE CITY'S RIGHTS.

Following the acknowledgement of the city's control and right by the "Key Route," that system was granted a franchise for a term of 50 years to a 1,000-foot strip of waterfront land, with the right and privilege to construct and maintain freight and passenger docks, engine houses, workshops, wharves, docks, slips, ferry landing places and other terminal facilities. This franchise, known as Ordinance No. 2059, in no sense granted any right or title or interest to the land beneath the trestle, fill or any other construction made or to be made during the term of the franchise by the company. There is no grant or conveyance of any kind other than the franchise privileges to the exclusive use of this 1,000 feet. Further, under this franchise, there shall revert to the city of Oakland upon the expiration of its term, all earth and rock fills, moles, piers, wharves, docks, ferry slips, pile structures and all other structures now or hereafter constructed or placed upon said strip of land 1,000 feet in width as described in the franchise ordinance.

The city of Oakland denies that the "Key Route" system holds any right of ownership in the strip of waterfront land upon which this franchise was granted, nor can it maintain any rightful claim of value in such lands other than that which goes with the exclusive use granted under the franchise.

FRANCHISE GIVES PRIVILEGES.

I submit that it should be carefully borne in mind by the Railroad Commission that this franchise giving the "Key Route" system rights and privileges that go with the construction, maintenance and operation of such works as are necessary to its ferry system terminals, railway and docks and wharves. There was great consideration in this franchise which is granted to the city of Oakland, viz: that without extended and indefinitely prolonged litigation, the city secured the acknowledgement of its "Key Route" system to municipal control of the waterfront. It also fixed and settled the low tide line, thereby enabling the city to definitely take over with certainty a large area of waterfront lands in the Key Route basin. The city of Oakland also, as I have noted, will possess at the expiration of the franchise term, all of the fixed improvements made by the "Key Route" system in this franchise area.

I base the denial of the city of Oakland to the "Key Route" system's claim of value in these lands upon the facts herein stated and detailed in my conversation with Mr. Wells.

As to the matter of intervention by the city in the proceedings before you, I shall have conference with the city council and attorneys for the city, advise you before the adjourned meeting on April 27. Very truly yours, FRANK K. MOTT, Mayor of the City of Oakland.

COCONUT OIL MAKES A SPLENDID SHAMPOO

If you want to keep your hair in good condition, the less soap you use the better.

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This alkali, makes the hair brittle, and is very harmful. Just use a small amount of coconut oil (which is pure and entirely greaseless) and wash with it. It is much better than soap or anything else you can use for shampooing. This can't possibly injure the hair.

Simply moisten your hair with water and rub it in. One or two spoonfuls will make an abundance of rich, creamy lather, and answer the hair and scalp thoroughly. The lather rinses out easily, and removes every particle of dirt, dandruff and excess oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves it fine and bright, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get multifid coconut oil at most any drug store. It is very cheap, and a few ounces is enough to last everyone in the family for months.

FRENCH PAVILION IS DEDICATED

Impressive But Simple Ceremonies Mark Opening of Exhibit

TRIBUNE BUREAU, Panama Pacific Exposition, April 9.—A monument to her undaunted spirit the pavilion of the Republic of France was dedicated at the Panama-Pacific International Exposition this afternoon and promptly the tricolor with stars over it for the balance of the Exposition period, while before the main portal the French coat of arms has been hung, proclaiming to the world the three words: "Liberty, Fraternity, Equality."

The crowd today was not the usual one of casual visitors who drop in at a dedication ceremony because they hear the music of a band, because they see a gaily bedecked speaker's stand, blithely and gold braided uniforms, not the kind who like to hear gilded oratory, but there were "les enfants de la patrie," the children of France and their descendants to whom the sound of the "Marseillaise" is but an echo from the trenches, to whom the French flag is a banner of glory and the French Republic is a goal of their dreams.

But not only France's children came. Thousands of people assembled in the court of the building, where the ceremonies were held, long before the hour set for the celebration and when the program finally began, every inch of space within bearing or seeing distance of the speaker's stand was filled with those who wanted to pay tribute to France.

The dedicatory address was made by Albert Tirman, commissioner general of France. Tirman spoke in French entirely and while the American audience did not understand what he said, the enthusiasm of the French-speaking hearers paved the way to generous applause and the very atmosphere was full of enthusiasm.

Raphael Weller and A. Legallet spoke for the San Francisco French colony and Governor Hiram W. Johnson for the government of California. Mayor James Rolph Jr. represented the city of San Francisco and William Bailey Lamar, national commissioner, spoke for the United States Government.

S. P. MAY KEEP CONTROL OF PACIFIC MAIL CO.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—The Southern Pacific Railroad Company has filed with the Interstate Commerce Commission an amendment to its petition asking that it be allowed to retain control of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, despite the prohibition against railroad ownership of steamships in the Panama Canal act.

The amendment was suggested by the commission in a recent report and designed to make it certain in the record that the Southern Pacific would not operate its ships through the Panama Canal, though no order was issued today by the commission. It was believed that this action assures retention of control of the Pacific Mail by the Southern Pacific.

DRAINAGE NEEDED FOR EXPERT IRRIGATION

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 9.—The bulletin points out: Proper drainage will accomplish four objects: (1) the lowering of the ground-water table to a depth where the moisture and air within the root zone will be properly balanced; (2) the creation of an outlet for percolating water, so that the ground-water table will not fluctuate excessively; (3) the removal of excess moisture following spring thaws; and (4) the creation of an outlet for downward moving water used to dissolve out the injurious salts. Incrustations of alkali salts and the presence of highly alkali-resistant plants are frequently indications of over-irrigation. In some cases ponds, bogs, and marshes are also found, but in others there are no visible signs of excessive wetness and its existence can only be inferred from its effects upon vegetation. The bulletin calls special attention to the difference in drainage practice between the arid and the humid regions, and emphasizes the need for thorough knowledge of underground conditions. To drain areas of this character will cost, it is estimated, on the average, from $10 to $25 an acre, except under unusual conditions when the cost may run as high as $50 an acre. Both open canals and covered conduits are in general use. The open canals, however, are intended primarily for the main outlet systems in which provision must be made for a considerable flow of water.

FIND MASTODON RELIC.

WOODLAND, April 9.—That the giant named elephant known as the mammoth, now extinct, lived in the vicinity of Woodland and undoubtedly browsed and searched for prey on the very site of this city thousands of years ago, was again demonstrated when J. Charles Jones of Sacramento, assistant to Attorney General L. S. Webb, and his son Evan, discovered at Elkhorn, eight miles east of here, a well preserved tooth of one of the animals in a pile of freshly turned dredger rock. Jones found but half a tooth which weighed 20 pounds. The enamel is well preserved, even though the tooth may range from 8000 to 10,000 years of age. Jones is exhibiting it to state employees at his offices in the state capitol building.

WEDDED YEARS, NOW SUE.

OROVILLE, April 9.—Suit for divorce has been instituted by Mrs. Clara Campbell against G. L. Campbell. The two were married in 1894. Cruelty, continuing of abusive language and continual quarrelling is alleged. The plaintiff asks a divorce decree and the custody of the three minor children.

CONSTRUCTION STARTS.

CHICO, April 9.—Construction work on the Chico-Nelson unit of the state highway has been begun by three crews of men, one at the Chico end, another at the Nelson end and the third at about the half-way point. A construction camp was established on Edgar, although yesterday, and the other two were established two or three days ago. Work commenced simultaneously at all three places.

GROW FIRST CHERRIES.

CHICO, April 9.—The first ripe cherries to be found anywhere in the United States were picked from a tree on Flume street between Seventh and Eighth streets by L. D. Breslau, who with his brother, Indore Breslau, owns the property. The tree is of the Royal Ann variety and for the past two years has blossomed and produced ripe cherries a month ahead of other varieties in this section.

REPRESENTATIVE QUILTS.

REDDING, April 9.—Roscoe J. Anderson, secretary of Spasta county development association, has telegraphed board supervisors from San Francisco asking to be relieved from further responsibility as the county's special representative at the exposition. The board accepted the resignation.

MARYSVILLE, April 9.—F. W. Boardman of Oakland has arrived in Marysville, and Monday purchased the ranch of August Schultz, composed of 80 acres of some fine land located in the Brown valley district. No irrigation is required in that district, where the land is located. The exact price paid for the property was not made public.

ADMITTED TO BAIL.

CHICO, April 9.—Earl Sewell, charged with driving an automobile belonging to Attorney J. O. Goldstein without Goldstein's permission while he was absent from the city, has been arraigned before Justice of the Peace J. L. Barnes. No date for his preliminary examination was set. Sewell is at liberty on $200 cash bail.

E. N. Walter, local banker and former part owner of the Oakland club of the Pacific Coast Baseball League, has been divorced by his wife, Nelle N. Walter, and an interlocutory decree signed by Superior Judge Donahue. The divorce was granted on the grounds of cruelty. According to the complaint, Walter preferred to attend baseball games to remaining with his wife Sundays while she was ill in a hospital. She also said that he remained away from home without explaining where he had been.

DYNAMITERS WRECK CLUBHOUSE

Headquarters in Los Angeles
Blown Up by Two Explosions.

LOS ANGELES, April 9.—Fearful that race riots will follow the dynamiting of the Serbian Club at 709 North Broadway last night, a strong cord of police was thrown around the foreign quarter this morning.

Two explosions of dynamite completely wrecked the club and damaged adjoining buildings. Immediately afterward fire started among the wreckage, but was extinguished by firemen before gaining headway.

The club had been used as headquarters for Serbian nationalists in Los Angeles and had been the scene of several clashes since the European war began.

Police detectives began an investigation of the explosion. So far as known no one was injured.

SAYS 'WIDOW' HAS TWO HUBBIES WOMAN IS ACCUSED BY SPOUSE

PORTLAND, April 9.—Alleging that she represented herself to him as an "unlabeled widow," but that instead she was marrying her third husband when she became his wife, W. H. Brown, an electrician, has filed suit to have the marriage annulled.

Brown, in his complaint, alleges that his wife had not secured a divorce from any of her husbands before marrying him. He asserts that she gave him the idea that she was "capable of entering into a legal contract of marriage," and that therefore he commenced "matrimonial negotiations."

In his complaint Brown names her as Jane Doe, alias Jennie Smith Kellogg, alias Jane J. Rust, alias Miperna J. Brown, true and legal name unknown. Both are about 56 years of age.

WIFE DENIES TOBACCO HABIT; WINS LAWSUIT.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—In answer to the complaint filed by his wife for divorce, George S. McGrath, an accountant, alleged that the charge of cruelty to him was made by his wife while she was suffering from nervousness caused by cigarettes. He did not, however, appear in person, and Judge Trout yesterday granted Mrs. McGrath an interlocutory decree.

The couple were married in Vancouver in February, 1914. Mrs. McGrath declared that one of his first offenses was to pawn all their silver and cut glass wedding presents. Later, she said, he tried to choke her, and she stoutly denied the tobacco habit.

McGrath was formerly employed by the Marshall A. Frank Company.

THREE MONTHS' SENTENCE FOR JUST A KISS.

NEW YORK, April 9.—A kiss will cost Charles Helde of Williams Bridge $250. And he will have three months to think it over—in the White Plains jail. Helde was charged yesterday by Justice Morschauser after a jury found Helde guilty of assault in the third degree. Miss Elizabeth Murphy, whom Helde had never seen before he met her on the Hartdale road, charged he threw his arms about her and kissed her. He is married.

SOCIETY WOMAN'S CHECK MADE GOOD.

REDWOOD CITY, April 9.—Arrangements have been made to pay the creditors of Mrs. John C. Breckenridge, the young society matron for whom a warrant was issued yesterday for issuing a worthless check, and it is believed that the charge against her will not be pressed. The complaint against Mrs. Breckenridge was sworn to by Thomas Flynn, an automobile man, who was given a check for $250 for auto hire.

WOMEN TO OPERATE AUTO AMBULANCES.

PARIS, April 9.—The French women's automobile club has commenced the recruiting of women motorists, aviators and balloonists to form a brigade of ambulances for the French army. Applications are coming in at the rate of 100 per day.

The organization aims to find enough capable women conductors to replace all the men at present driving ambulances who are capable of rendering better services at the front.

Four women aviators, including Madame Paillet, Baronesse de la Roche and Mlle. Helene Dutrieu, who had been refused admission to the aviation club, have joined this movement. Many applications for enrollment have been made by women motorists who want to act as dispatch bearers at the front.

WOMAN'S HATHIN TOO MUCH FOR BULLDOG.

NEW YORK, April 9.—At the point of a long sharp baton, Mrs. Dora Caton of 440 Madison street, Brooklyn, marched a burglar into the Gates avenue police court yesterday. She had captured him in her apartments. He was held in $3000 bail.

SPEED KING'S WIFE IS GRANTED DIVORCE.

LOS ANGELES, April 9.—Mrs. Theodore H. Teitzlaff, wife of Teddy Teitzlaff, known all over America as an automobile race driver, and holder of the world's track speed record for several years, was granted a divorce yesterday on her allegations of desertion and drunkenness.

GIRL FIRES ON WOMAN IN CROWDED CAFE.

CHICAGO, April 9.—Men and women lingering over their luncheon in one of the big downtown restaurants were thrown into panic this afternoon when Miss Genevieve Irvine rose from her seat and fired two shots from a revolver at her table. Mrs. Hugh McLennan, a Mrs. McLennan, who is the wife of the president of a local construction company, ran from the restaurant screaming, "I am shot." She was mistaken, however, for both bullets had gone wild.

Detectives found Miss Irvine in a condition bordering on hysteria, the revolver lying on the floor at her feet. She was taken to a hospital and later to a police station.

FORNEY RENEWS FIGHT ON STATE R. R. BOARD.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—C. S. S. Forney, president of the Central California Gas Company, now in a tilt with the railroad commission, yesterday started to prepare the inventory of the property of the company to comply with the request of the commission. Forney states that after this is filed he will turn his attention to getting ready for the hearing April 19.

Forney last night said the real issue between the Central California Gas Company and the railroad commission, the fact that it is vital to the interest of the people served by this utility to have a decision on our application.

"After public hearing and complete investigation the commissioner from time to time has authorized this utility to spend certain sums for certain specific purposes. Such sums were spent and after having been spent were checked by the engineers and auditors of the commission and approved."

Now come along some young members of the engineering staff of the commission and declare that the actual paid bills on hand represent cost, but not value. In other words, the commission one day approving the price of an article, authorizes us to buy it, and the next day says that the article is not worth what they told us we could spend for it.

"Such differences over night as $135,000 in the proved value of this company's property, $3,000,000 in the Los Angeles railway, $300,000 in the United Light and Power Company, and $10,000,000 in the Key Route are incomprehensible."

BOY IS MUTILATED BY ATTACK OF DOG

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—With his face and neck horribly mangled following a ferocious attack by a pet shepherd dog last night, little Willie Wright, aged 2½ years, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Wright, 64 Adams street, was taken to the Mission Emergency Hospital, where it is thought he will recover.

The child was alone in a room with the dog. When the mother, attracted by the infant's screams, rushed to his bedside, she found him lying on the floor, his face and neck mangled. He was not seriously hurt before she finally freed her son and got a muzzle on the dog. The little boy is terribly disfigured.

SLIDE IN CULEBRA.

PANAMA, April 9.—A new movement of the old Culebra cut slide on the west bank of the canal occurred yesterday, and has closed the canal. Several ships are tied up, among them the Kenko, the first Japanese ship to use the waterway. She is bound for Newport News. The slide was not unexpected. The channel will be cleared and the canal reopened today.

FLOWERS BLOOM IN BIG EXHIBIT

Four Hundred Varieties Are Displayed at San Leandro Show.

SAN LEANDRO, April 9.—Four hundred varieties of wild flowers, contrasting with garden and conservatory blooms, are on view here today at San Leandro's annual wild flower show, the only exhibit of its kind in the state, which is being held in the auditorium of the public school will be open to the public today and tomorrow. There was no formal opening ceremony this morning.

Expert botanists and horticulturists are in charge of the unique collection of flowers from every part of the state. Guy Smith, vice-president of the California Botanical Society, has personally supervised the arranging and classification of the many specimens collected by agents in fourteen counties.

Large space is given in the display to a collection of fungi, gathered and classified by Severus Smith of Berkeley, and also to varieties of wild and garden ferns. Well known society women, flower lovers of both sides of the bay, have sent wild, garden and conservatory flowers, and are present today to explain the different varieties.

Contrast afforded by the wild flowers of the Mojave desert and the rare blooms from the slopes of the high Sierras, is one of the features of the show.

Concerts will be given at the show today by the San Leandro school band and tomorrow by the night school orchestra.

Hundreds of visitors inspected the exhibits this morning and during the afternoon. It is expected the attendance during the two days will number between 5000 and 6000 persons.

CANAL ZONE TO BE MILITARY DISTRICT

WASHINGTON, April 9.—After conferring with Major-General Wood, commanding the eastern department of the army, who is on his way to Washington from Cristobal, Secretary Garrison will decide the time at which the Panama canal forces will be organized into a separate department of the army. At present they comprise part of the eastern department. Under the proposed arrangement, the commander of the Panama troops would report directly to the Secretary of War instead of through the commander of the eastern department at Governor's Island, N. Y.

Secretary Garrison says he is heartily in favor of having the military of the canal a separate department, but that it might be advisable to postpone putting the scheme into operation until all of the forces planned to guard the great waterway have taken station in the canal zone.

ENRICH THE BLOOD

Hood's Sarsaparilla, A Spring Tonic-Medicine, is Necessary.

Everybody is troubled at this season with loss of vitality, failure of appetite, that tired feeling, or with bilious turns, dull headaches, indigestion and other stomach troubles, or with pimples and other eruptions on the face and body. The reason is that the blood is impure and impoverished.

Hood's Sarsaparilla relieves all these ailments. It is the old reliable medicine that has stood the test of forty years—that makes pure, rich, red blood—the strengthener, every organ and builds up the whole system. It is the all-the-year-round blood-purifier and health-giver. Nothing else acts like it, for nothing else is like it. There is no real substitute; so be sure to get Hood's. Ask your druggist for it today, and begin taking it at once.—Advertisement.

LADIES! Here's a Pretty Broad Statement:

You can get more genuine clothes satisfaction for your money here in this "cash-merchandising-method" Store than anywhere else in this community.

As a general rule, we avoid superlative claims—anybody can make claims. But our present stocks of Women's and Misses' Spring Suits are so emphatic a testimony to our ability to undersell any other first-class store that we risk misunderstanding to make our point.

The Best Suit Values in California

The strongest factor in the merchandising world today is "ready cash." We prove this daily by buying and selling Women's Clothes for cash only. Here's an example

400 BILLS BEFORE LEGISLATURE TODAY

Crowded Calendar and Short Sitting Mark Fall of Assembly Gavel.

By Associated Press. SACRAMENTO, April 9.—Four hundred bills were on the calendar of the lower house of the Legislature today, awaiting the attention of the members and with a short session in sight it was doubtful if more than a dozen measures could be disposed of.

The Assembly was expected to adjourn early in the afternoon to permit forty or more members to start on an excursion to the Panama-California Exposition at San Diego, where they will spend Saturday and part of Sunday. The House only recently voted $2945 to defray the expenses of the trip.

Gelders' anti-compulsory vaccination bill was scheduled to come up on motion for reconsideration of the vote by which it was passed early in the week. Pettis of Fort Bragg announced yesterday that he would endeavor to overturn its previous vote.

The Harris anti-capital punishment bill, which was reported to the House without recommendation by the judiciary committee, also was to come up today for final action.

The committee added an amendment to the bill making life term murderers ineligible to pardon, commutation of sentence or parole.

Employment Exchanges to Be Administered by Labor Commissioner

By Associated Press. SACRAMENTO, April 9.—The Senate labor committee voted 4 to 2 yesterday to place free labor exchanges under the administration of the state labor commissioner and recommended out of committee a bill with a favorable report.

Since Governor Johnson in his January message to the legislature advised the creation of free labor employment bureaus a keen contest has been waged between the labor commissioner and the commissioner of housing and immigration to win jurisdiction over the bureaus.

Simon J. Lubin, chairman of the housing committee, contended that only when exchanges were jointly managed by the employer and employee class were they successful. Paul Scharenberg, another member of the housing committee, supported him. Labor organizations which are urging the free exchanges have been divided on the disputed point of administration.

DRUGLESS HEALERS MAY NOW TAKE STATE TESTS

By Associated Press. SACRAMENTO, April 9.—Osteopaths and other drugless practitioners are granted various concessions in Senator Benson's state medical board bill which passed the Assembly 52 to 2. Provisions are made that osteopaths holding diplomas from colleges not approved by the state board may appeal to the courts to compel the board to grant them permission to take the examinations allowed the graduates of recognized colleges.

Graduates of the schools of drugless healing are permitted to avail themselves of the board's examinations when their schools have met the qualification or standard fixed by the board.

SHIP 150 AEROPLANES. TACOMA, Wash., April 9.—Fifteen tons of aeroplanes for use by the Russian army arrived in Tacoma last night by the Canadian Pacific railway for shipment to Vladivostok on the Japanese steamship Hokushu Maru, due in Tacoma. It is estimated there are 150 aeroplanes, valued at between $2000 and $4000 each, a total valuation of between $450,000 and $600,000.

STOLE HORSE HAIR. SPOKANE, Wash., April 9.—A robber invaded the railroad yards here and cut the hair from the tails of 150 horses being held for shipment to Chicago. The horses were not mutilated otherwise, but it is said that the destruction of their tails will make them practically unsalable. It is estimated that the thief got away with about eighty pounds of hair, valued at 3 cents a pound.

12-YEAR TERM FOR JUDGES ADOPTED

Finn Bill Passes Senate; Opposition Carries Fight to Assembly.

By Associated Press. SACRAMENTO, April 9.—Without a vote to spare, Senator Finn obtained in the Senate the twenty-seven votes necessary to carry his constitutional amendment increasing the terms of superior judges from six to twelve years. There were thirteen nays.

It was the second time the measure had been voted through the Senate. Senator Carr winning a motion for reconsideration. A new trial vote was put off to get a full attendance. Senator Benson happened into his seat from a sick bed to support Finn in his fight.

An attempt to amend the bill so that the twelve-year terms would apply only to judges hereafter elected failed after long debate by a vote of 6 to 21.

"I am opposed to the measure as extending the terms of those judges now in office is contrary to public policy," said Benedict. "The incumbents would use their political power to persuade the voters to adopt the amendment. I believe that because I have received many telegrams from incumbent judges urging me to support this measure."

Finn, opposing the amendment, declared that "it cannot go into effect until after the election of 1916 and statistics show that almost 99 per cent of the judges are re-elected."

After defeat of the amendment Carr of Pasadena, leader of the opposition to the measure, declared that labor organizations had gone on record against it. With two exceptions the senators who are regarded as labor supporters, voted with Finn. Later legislative representatives of labor organizations began to urge Carr to beat the measure in the Assembly.

Wine Growers Excise Bill to Regulate Liquor Trade Abandoned by Advocates

By Associated Press. SACRAMENTO, April 9.—State regulation of the liquor traffic, as proposed by Assemblyman Bruck's bill, which contained the recommendations of the California Grape Growers' Association, became a dead letter last night so far as the forty-first legislature is concerned. The public morals committee of the lower house, which has had the bill under consideration for nearly four weeks, reached a decision to let the measure die on file.

The bill cannot be revived again unless by request of its author, said Bruck. It is understood, is quite willing that it shall remain quiescent in committee. According to Assemblyman T. W. Wright, chairman of the public morals committee, Bruck said that if his measure could not be given a favorable recommendation he preferred that it remain in committee. A poll of the committee members, said Wright, showed a unanimous sentiment against the measure.

Scores of petitions protesting against any form of liquor regulation by the state were received during the early days of the legislature. The bill aimed to establish a State excise commission which would assume entire control of saloons and restrict their number to not more than one for every five hundred population.

Capitol Notes

By Associated Press. SACRAMENTO, April 9.—Both drug stores and groceries are forbidden to sell liquor under the new bill recommended by the Senate health committee.

The state's grant of tide lands to the city of San Diego made in 1911 was amended in a bill by Senator Luce passed through the Senate, to extend for one year the time for the city to accept improvements by the city. It also permits fifty year leases and other easier conditions for the renting of tide lands by the city.

The King's county government bill, Irwin author, fixing salaries, was unanimously passed by the Senate.

Wild animal shows in which trainers enter cages will not be prohibited by the legislature in the senate, said Senator Slater. It was indicated in the senate judiciary committee last night. The committee unanimously voted against the bill though humane society representatives recited stories of trainers being torn to pieces and related instances of alleged brutalities to the captured lords of the jungle.

A bill to fix criminal penalties for fraudulent advertising received favorable consideration in the senate judiciary committee last night after Arthur J. Abbott, attorney for advertising clubs of Los Angeles, had supplied details of false advertisements that had duped thousands of credulous investors. Senator Brown's bill was referred to a subcommittee with a promise that it would be passed out again some drastic features had been modified.

ELOQUENCE FREES HIM FROM OUNCE VILE

BURLINGAME, April 9.—Willard C. Chamberlain, the young attorney, discomfited at length on the matter of criminal complaints before the Burlingame authorities yesterday. He offered the instrument charging him with speeding as a splendid example of what a complaint should not be. With a great burst of eloquence he pointed out its several deficiencies, after which City Recorder A. A. Meyer concluded to dismiss the charge against him. Chamberlain was arrested while on his way to his Hillsborough home last Friday.

INCENDIARY ATTEMPT IS FRUSTRATED BY EMPLOYE

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—What the police believe to have been an attempt to burn down the Hotel Van Ness, 619 Van Ness avenue, was frustrated this morning by Miss L. Brown, the manager, who chanced to enter the bath room and discovered a smoldering blaze. Three candles had been placed and lighted near a pile of rubbish in such fashion as when the wicks burned down papers would be ignited spreading to woodwork.

Miss Brown promptly notified the detective department. She knows of no one who might desire to destroy the structure but the suspicion of possible incendiarism is strong.

U. S. RECEIVERS FOR SIEGEL-COOPER CO.

Greenhut Firm, Former Ally, Late Successor, in Financial Straits.

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, April 8.—Receivers were appointed today by Federal Judge Hand for the J. B. Greenhut Company which operates a large department store in this city.

The J. B. Greenhut Company had an authorized and outstanding capital stock of $5,000,000 and a bond issue of $5,000,000 sinking fund, gold 6 per cent bonds. Under the provisions of the bond issue $150,000 worth of the bonds were to be retired annually. The Central Trust Company of New York is trustee. Two changes have been made since the incorporation of the original firm, November 16, 1910. The first when it became consolidated with the Siegel-Cooper Company under the name of the Greenhut Siegel-Cooper Company. In May of last year the firm name was changed to the J. B. Greenhut Company. J. B. Greenhut is president of the firm. The department store conducted, long known as the Siegel-Cooper store, occupies both blocks in Sixth avenue, between Eighteenth and Nineteenth streets.

Assets are listed in the complaint at $7,465,419 including merchandise, cash and accounts receivable. The liabilities, it is stated, aggregate $7,712,066, not including the mortgage liabilities amounting to approximately $2,550,000.

A few moments after the appointment of the receivers an involuntary petition in bankruptcy was filed against the company by three creditors with claims aggregating $5000. In their petition these creditors alleged that the assets exclusive of real estate do not exceed $6,000,000 and that the liabilities aggregate approximately $12,000,000.

The receivership was applied for in a suit brought by the Mercantile Securities Company and the defendant consented to the appointment. Walter C. Noyes and William A. Marble were named as receivers by the court. Their bond was fixed at $100,000.

Benjamin G. Paskus of counsel for the Greenhut Company asserted that the liabilities were about $2,500,000 and assets about $7,000,000.

Without question the business will be reorganized. Mr. Paskus asserted. The action taken today is a friendly proceeding in equity and is for the purpose of conserving the assets of the company and to enable the continuance of business without interruption during the time required to bring about an equitable adjustment of all liabilities of the company.

Trusty Felt Lonely, So Left the Palatial, But Solitary Jail.

Yuba City, April 9.—Leaving his card on which was written, "I have vamoosed," J. H. McKimsey, who was acting as a trusty at the Sutter County jail here, made his escape late yesterday. He eluded J. E. Fugitt, the janitor, with whom he had been working. The Sutter County jail is now empty, for within the last thirty days four other prisoners have escaped. A statement which says: "McKimsey did not escape at the time the others slipped out, because he stated that he feared his disfigured nose would result in his early capture."

Chicago, April 9.—The jury in the trial of George Sontag, ex-bandit member of the Evans-Sontag band, charged with conspiracy to defraud stockholders of the United States Feature Film Company, disagreed yesterday, and was discharged. Sontag's second trial has been set for September 1.

San Diego, April 9.—The Panama-California Exposition here and the Panama-Pacific Exposition will result in a great influx of Easterners to California for several years after the close of the exposition, according to Senator Harry Lane of Oregon, a visitor to the exposition today. "The population of California should double within three years. The Easterner will see advantages you have overlooked," Senator Lane said.

Coming, April 9.—The annual session

By Associated Press.
BOSTON, Mass., April 8.—A cooperative plan by which the Denison Manufacturing company, a five-million-dollar corporation, would be turned over to employees for management, and all employees will share in its profits, was announced last night.

Twenty-four hundred employees are affected. Of these, about 224, comprising such employees as earn $1000 or more annually, will receive free an issue of industrial management stock. This stock will control the management of the company.

The other employees will share in the profits, through provision for annual or more frequent returns, on their operating capacities.

Why Doctors Say "Oranges"

There is hardly a physician practicing today who doesn't advocate the eating of oranges.

1st, because oranges have a beneficial effect on the blood, keeping it pure and clean. This is especially necessary during the spring and summer months.

2nd, because oranges act as a mild and pleasant stimulant for the liver. A disordered liver changes one's whole outlook on life.

3rd, because oranges contain just the right amount of fruit acid to keep the digestive organs in proper working order. Oranges help the digestion of all other foods.

THE ARMY AS A TRAINING SCHOOL

Conflicting views respecting the organization and incidental uses of the army are making a situation at Washington rather more than less unpleasant for Secretary Garrison. For a long time the policies involved in military organization were dominated by General Frank Ainsworth, who, though now on the retired list, is still a busy mixer in pretty much anything and everything relating to the army. General Ainsworth's idea is that of a highly organized, highly professionalized army. He believes in long enlistments with the development of a military spirit apart from and distinct from civil interests and influences. In brief, General Ainsworth believes in the development of a professional military caste.

Opposed to this general idea is a plan representing the aims of General Leonard Wood—a plan for short enlistments with the return each year to the civil life of the country of a large number of men of some military experience. General Wood would make the army a species of training school for men, normally engaged in civic pursuits but subject to call for military service at any time.

Conflict between these ideas has gotten to the boiling point at Washington. General Ainsworth who though in nominal retirement is still a potential figure, stands on one side of the contention and Secretary of War Garrison stands on the other. Ainsworth has succeeded in arraying against the Secretary, Chairman Hay of the House Military Committee and Senator Chamberlain, chairman of Senate Committee of Military Affairs. These are potential men in relation to all matters affecting the army and their co-operation with General Ainsworth is giving him a power which he is exercising greatly to the annoyance both of the Secretary and of the President.

Out of this situation has come a report now being circulated widely through the newspapers of the country that Secretary Garrison is planning retirement from the Cabinet. The story, we are told, is a fabrication. Mr. Garrison has no intention of retiring and the President probably would not release him if he should wish to get out. The President believes with Messrs. Wood and Garrison in the popular as distinct from the professional idea in military organization and will back up Secretary Garrison in the full extent of his authority.

In the opinion of The Tribune the plan of General Wood and Secretary Garrison to make the military service of the country a species of training school might be carried even further than has yet been proposed and to great advantage. If there be one thing more than another that the average American youth needs it is discipline and particularly discipline of the kind imposed by and in connection with military training. We can think of nothing better calculated to improve the physical and moral fibre of the American people than a year of enforced military training for every youth in the land.

The naval training school at Goat Island provides concrete illustration of the working value of this sort of thing. At this school there are received each month a group of youths from every part of California. They are for the most part untrained, awkward, uncouth and with scant respect for authority of any kind. They are the natural product of a new country as yet without regulated and fixed forms of industry. In a month it is to be noted that these young men take on quite another character: in six months the change is radical. They have learned respect for authority, respect for themselves. Their whole aspect has changed. For shuffling and uncouth ways they have taken on the form and manner of disciplined men. They have been schooled in obedience and self-control. They have acquired habits of prompt attention to regular duties. And quite as important as all this, they have learned how to care for themselves physically. Let anybody who is interested note the contrast between the flabby recruit of half a year ago and the finished product of today. The difference is something amazing and it is wholly to the good.

What we are doing in a limited way at a few stations like Goat Island, Germany for many years has long done regularly and for all the youth of that country. For a year or two or three it makes a soldier of every German boy. This system is called by the hard name of compulsory military service. None the less it has been the making of much that is to be admired in the German character.

It goes a bit against the grain of American theory and sentiment when compulsory military service is suggested; nevertheless, the system if enforced here would be of unmeasurable benefit to the country physically, mentally and morally. President Wilson, who knows something about the rearing and training of young men—movers, we suspect, than about some other things—clearly sees the need of some such scheme of universal discipline. He approached the subject gingerly in a recent utterance, but has not yet found courage to declare the full measure of his private judgment. He would, we believe, do the country a great service by further developing this idea—by putting fairly before the country the necessity for giving to our youth a period of serious discipline in the training essential to the soldier in conjunction with the training essential to efficient civilian life.

THE SCHOOLS OF OAKLAND.

The people of Oakland have deep pride in their public schools, and their pride is just and sound. The renown of the Oakland public school system is not limited to this locality. It is statewide and is not without recognition in educational circles in many other parts of the country. Our schools have been and are an asset to the community in more ways than one. They not only give to the children of this city exceptional opportunities for acquiring the fundamentals of a good education, but they also prepare pupils for the more advanced instruction which is given in our colleges and universities. The preservation of the high standard of excellence which has been attained by the public schools of Oakland, the maintenance of the esprit de corps of the teachers and the enlargement and improvement of educational facilities ought to be matters of first importance to every good citizen in this city and county.

Public schools, no matter how well they have been established, will not continue to improve and to make that degree of normal advancement which every sound and healthy institution must show, unless they are very carefully administered. Our public schools are governed by the board of education. This body, aside from the people themselves, is the supreme and final authority. The character and the future success of the schools will be very largely determined by the ability, fitness and honesty of the men whom the people elect to be members of the board of education. No more serious, important, imperative duty faces the voters of this city than that of personally exercising the most searching scrutiny and care in the matter of selecting candidates at the primaries for the board of education. Neither friendship, nor politics, nor religion, nor business considerations should be allowed to turn the balance against solid merit in the selection of candidates for the school board. Don't vote for a man merely because you like him, or because he is a good fellow, or because he is a good talker, or because he belongs to your lodge or your church when it comes to selecting candidates upon whose judgment, honesty and competency depend the welfare of your children in the matter of education. Let every voter deal with this grave question of selecting members of the school board in as conscientious and intelligent a way as possible. For, if we do not select men of the best and highest type to control the organization and administration of our schools, they will soon cease to be a source of pride and gratification to us, and they will no longer attract parents from other parts of the state who are seeking the city which affords the best advantage—its public schools for their children.

Official assurances which represent Italian governmental authority as restraining the warlike eagerness of the country "in the interest of humanity," lack the quality of impressiveness which the slang of the day styles "punch." The plain truth is that the Italian government is engaged in a subtle and not very worthy game. Nothing can be plainer than that Italy intends to get into the war before its close, and that her purpose is to be in on the side of the victor. The "cause of humanity" is less considered just now in the counsels of Italy than the interests of Italy herself. Italy, not unnaturally, would like to possess those provinces and regions largely Italian in population and language which border the Adriatic. Italy, not unnaturally, would like to expand her authority northward and eastward over provinces now dominated by Austria. She would like many other things; and all these things she hopes to get by holding her powers in reserve up to the final stage of the war and then throwing them into the balance on the side of the victor. It is not a nice game. Possibly it will succeed. But something morally higher and better might not unreasonably have been expected from the country of Mazzini and Garibaldi.

Chancellor Lloyd-George denies that in a recent public speech he applied the phrase "drunken wasters" to the working class or to any other particular class in England. He used it, he said, in describing those working men who, at a time when their country is in sore need of the materials of war, prefer to lie drunk half the week than to devote their energies to work essential for the national defense. We fear that the phrase drunken wasters applies not only to a large class of English workmen, but to another large class who individually style themselves gentlemen. Drunkenness has come in England to be a colossal evil, affecting not one class alone, but every class. When we read that the British daily drink bill exceeds the cost of maintaining the British navy in time of war, we find it easy to sympathize with the resentment of Mr. George and his colleagues against an enemy "more insidious and more terrible than foes in arms."

The United States owes it to national morality and to common decency to investigate promptly and thoroughly the charge that British ships patrolling the northern and western Atlantic are drawing supplies from American sources. We had an experience of this sort of thing during our own Civil War. We resented, up to the verge of a declaration of war, the building and supplying in England, of ships maintained by Confederate policy to prey upon Union commerce. We finally enforced our demands; and long after the conclusion of the war we compelled England to pay some fifteen millions of dollars in compensation of damages resulting from her complicity or connivance or both. No principle of international practice is more definitely established than that which prohibits the outfitting and supplying of the ships of a belligerent country by a neutral country. No government has insisted upon this principle more positively than has the United States.

It cannot be said that our skirts are clean in respect of this principle, even in connection with the present war. It is not forgotten that the ship Sacramento sailed from San Francisco some five or six months ago laden with supplies for a German fleet in the South Atlantic. Everybody knew precisely the purpose of this shipment. There was not an officer of customs, high or low, who had the slightest moral doubt about it. Yet the thing was permitted to be done. Half a dozen affidavits, lightly made by men of easy conscience, were permitted to outweigh an overwhelming combination of suggestive circumstances and plain facts. We did a great wrong in permitting this violation of neutrality at a point where our own insistence has been most positive. We have suffered for this wrong in loss of respect abroad—even in loss of self-respect. Now, to follow up this wrong with another precisely similar in kind could be nothing less than self-confession of turpitude. The government, we repeat, owes it to its consistency and integrity to pursue this inquiry with utmost promptness and thoroughness. And if it shall be found that belligerent ships are supplied from American ports, then punishment should be swift and thorough-going.

Even more horrifying than the system of cold-blooded murder involved in submarine assaults upon non-combatant ships is the dropping of bombs from aircraft upon non-combatant communities. We know of no name which may properly be applied in reproach for the killing of something more than fifty men, women and children at Cetinje, Montenegro, yesterday by assaults from the sky. To call this sort of thing war is merely to traffic in falsehood. It is not war; it is assassination—nothing else.

The German government will pay the value of the American ship William P. Frye, sunk at sea by the Prinz Eitel. This is satisfactory in its way. But it is not entirely satisfactory. It recalls the case of the man who was knocked down in the street upon a false identification, and then given a new suit of clothes by way of making the matter up to him. It is, of course, the only possible solution of the immediate issue. But the United States should warn Germany not to do this sort of thing again, and with an emphasis that should be a warning not only to Germany but to every other country.

TWENTY YEARS AGO TODAY

Mrs. Elizabeth Saunders, one of the oldest actresses in the country, celebrated her seventy-sixth birthday and was visited by many old acquaintances from this city and remembered by others with floral tributes.

A movement is now being pushed to make Elmhurst an incorporated town. L. T. Higgins is urging the proposition and he is trying to organize a meeting, at which the matter will be discussed.

At the Manse, corner of Wood and Eighth streets, a debating society is to be formed, which will be known as the Washington-Lincoln club. A number of pleasant social and literary entertainments have recently been given at the Manse, the most recent one being that given by Henry Lahti, assisted by Fred Clifford, F. E. Hinckley, Miss L. Thaler, Miss Eugenie Marr, Miss Mary Norton and others. Among those present were: Messrs. J. Nethercott, James Ballard, Harry Monson, Henry Lahti, John Wilson, Richard Ferge, Archie Lamen, Louis Byers, C. Lauffer, C. Bennett, G. Lauffer, F. Morrison, H. Robinson, Guy Olsen and Miss Dale, Norton, Miss May Merton, Miss Eva Ayres, Miss Nabel and Miss Ethel Ennis. Miss Louisa Walcott, Miss Edna Jones, Miss Nellie Robinson, Miss Agnes Stevens, Miss Teresa Ross.

Rev. E. S. Williams, assistant pastor of the First Congregational Church, is wondering "where he is at." Through the District Attorney's office he learned that he is in danger of indictment by the Grand Jury for failing to file a statement of his expenses as a candidate during the recent municipal campaign. Dr. Williams was more than surprised when he received this note of warning from District Attorney Snook. It was all news to him, particularly as the reverend gentleman was made aware for the first time that he had been a candidate for office.

The launching of the palatial yacht of A. Leonard of Alameda at the foot of Union street, was a failure and a thousand people who gathered to witness it were bitterly disappointed. Among them was the class of '02 of this College who had intended to take part in the maiden cruise of the pretty yacht. The yacht had been christened by Miss Iona Leonard as El Seneo, and she then started down the water, but before she reached the water the cradle dropped, and the yacht was stalled without touching the water. It was decided to wait for the tide to complete the launching.

WAR NOW BEYOND MAN'S SKEN; WILSON

President Says Truth Must Come Later; Facts Now Unknown.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—In a speech before the Harvard annual conference of the Methodist church in session here tonight, President Wilson said it was his belief that no man was wise enough to pronounce judgment on the European war at this time.

"But," he added, "we can all hold our spirits in readiness to accept the truth when it is revealed to us in the outcome of this titanic struggle."

The president reminded the delegates that in transacting the business of their church they were like the men in charge of the nation's government in reality, handling "the phases of the day."

"It seems," he said, "as if great blind material forces had been released which had for long been held in leash and restraint. Yet, and underneath it, you can see the strong impulses of great truths which would be responsible for men to go through what men are going through on the battlefields of Europe and struggle through the present dark night of their terrible struggle. If it were not that they saw, or thought that they saw, the broadening or light where the morning should come up and believed that they were standing each on his side of the contest for some eternal principle of right."

"Then, all about them, all about us, these slits the great waiting tribunal which is going to utter ultimate judgment upon this struggle—the great tribunal of the opinion of the world; and, I fancy I see, I hope that I see, I pray that it may be that I do truly see, great spiritual forces long waiting for the outcome of this thing to assert themselves, and asserting themselves even now, to enlighten our judgment and steady our spirits. No man is wise enough to pronounce judgment, but we can all hold our spirits in readiness to accept the truth when it dawns on us and is revealed to us in the outcome of this titanic struggle."

NAVAL UNIFORM IS DOWNFALL OF DOCTOR

By Associated Press.
KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 9.—Dazzling uniforms, resplendent with gold braid, figured largely, according to government officers, in the career of Dr. Charles LeRoy, 30 years old, arrested here yesterday, charged with impersonating a Federal officer.

Arthur T. Bagley, special agent of the Department of Justice, said at LeRoy's arraignment that the young man had rented downtown offices and a suite of rooms on a boulevard here, where he posed as an officer in the United States Marine Service, augmenting his claims by appearing on the boulevard and in the office perfectly groomed and wearing his accoutrements. LeRoy was held to the Federal grand jury.

Bagley alleged LeRoy represented he was to establish a marine hospital in Kansas City and had offered positions to a number of persons who were asked to furnish cash bonds as evidences of their good faith.

OF DEATH OF SAILOR

MARE ISLAND, April 9.—Inquiry is being made today into the death of Walter Rodgers, an ordinary seaman attached to the commandant's harbor at Mare Island, who was drowned yesterday when he attempted to step from the boat to a float moored in the straits. Rodgers' companions saw him fall overboard, but they do not believe that he would have been in trouble in saving himself, as they knew that he was an expert swimmer.

The commandant has named Major McGill, U. S. M. C., Surgeon Cammer, U. S. N., and Lieutenant Cleary, U. S. N., to make a thorough investigation of the sad affair.

LOS ANGELES, April 9.—After evading for twenty-eight hours the officers on his trail, Earl Wyatt, aged 24, a paroled convict from San Quentin, was seized on two women and then committed suicide. MURDER AND SUICIDE.
LOS ANGELES, April 9.—Pursuing his wife into a beet field near his home in Artesia, a suburb, R. S. Brady, a healthy farmer, shot and killed the two women and then committed suicide. The tragedy is said to have been the outcome of a quarrel over a trivial subject. The bodies were found lying side by side.

Wyatt is a half-brother of Russell Wyatt, former United States district attorney in Portland, and of the former wife of Jonathan Bourne, former United States Senator from Oregon. He is known as the "Westgate Burglar," having robbed many fashionable houses in Westgate and Santa Monica more than a year ago, for which offenses he was given the years in San Quentin. APPEALS TO WOMEN
TO ENTER POLITICS

Mrs. Belmont Declares Four Million Voters Can Force Amendment.

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, April 9.—Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, chairman of the committee on women voters' convention of the Congressional Union for Women Suffrage, today issued an appeal intended to reach the 4,000,000 women voters of the suffrage states, and rally them to the support of the congressional union's campaign for a federal suffrage amendment.

She urged the women to attend the convention to be held in San Francisco September 14 to 16, 1915, and plans for the campaign. In her appeal Mrs. Belmont declared:

"There are now approximately 4,000,000 women voters. One fourth of the National Senate, one-sixth of the House of Representatives and one-fifth of their electoral vote comes from suffrage states. With this leverage in Congress, the national suffrage amendment could speedily be passed if the women voters would unite in its support."

SALE OF STOCK IS REFUSED COMPANY

State Corporation Commissioner Accuses Vice-President of Oakland Concern.

State Corporation Commissioner H. L. Carnahan, at Sacramento, today declined to certify the sale of the Pacific Coast Securities Company of San Francisco and Oakland, to sell 200 shares of stock at $15 per share. The denial is based on the fact that the company's business was found "unfair, unjust and inequitable," and that it does not intend to do a fair and honest business.

Members of the part of the company which is in the insurance business, in dealing with the state corporation department, is charged by Commissioner Carnahan. It was the company's failure to state the true condition of the company's affairs that led to the investigation and the refusal to grant the permit.

The particular misstatement charged to the corporation is its failure to notify the corporation commissioner that control of the Pacific Coast Securities Company for the agency of the California State Life Insurance Company of Sacramento, was cancelled shortly after the first request for a permit was made. This contract for the agency of the California State Life was one of the greatest assets of the securities company.

PROMINENT MEN. Other officers of the securities of the company are Dr. Ergo A. Major, president, who is a surgeon and capitalist in Oakland; W. A. Compertz, of Berkeley, vice-president of the West Berkeley Bank; S. Sjosten, assistant secretary; Dr. W. D. Huntington, an Oakland capitalist, and F. A. Volmer, cashier of the Anglo-California Trust Company, director.

Dr. Major, president of the company, was surprised to learn of the denial by State Corporation Commissioner Carnahan of the corporation's application for permission to sell its stock. He declared that he knew nothing of the matter, however.

"I am merely nominal head of the corporation," he said, "and know nothing of the business details. If any misstatements have been made I know absolutely nothing of it."

The Pacific Coast Securities Company is a local concern, with offices in the First National Bank building. It was organized two years ago, and is Pacific coast representative for a large number of big eastern insurance concerns, for which they write all policies in certain districts.

Officials of the company stated that the matter had been taken up by Carnahan, that would be opened for a hearing, and that the final disposition of the matter would probably be made at that time. Some of the active officials of the company will be heard, the case entirely reopened, and many matters not before gone into will be brought out. The entire affair, according to the officials of the company, is due to a misunderstanding.

WIFE ASKS UNCLE SAM TO DEPORT WOMAN WHO 'INFLUENCES' HUSBAND

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—Leo F. Theuriet, sales manager with a local firm of jewelers and a member of the San Mateo colony, was swept into the limelight this morning when it was learned that his wife had urged the Angel Island authorities to hasten proceedings for the deportation of Pearl de la Forge, his alleged affinity.

According to Mrs. Theuriet, it is her belief that she can win back the affection of her husband, providing the fair character is removed.

She is said to exercise a strong influence over Theuriet, which continued at the present by reason of the fact that she is at liberty on $1000 bail, pending advice from Washington. It was Mrs. Theuriet's anxiety to expedite the sending of the woman out of the country that led to the making of the details public.

Recently Mrs. Theuriet visited her two children, who were staying with friends. It is understood that the couple have been separated for some time. Theuriet refused to make any statement this morning, declaring that there was nothing that could be said. He also refused to talk to the assistant United States attorney, who was notified of the affair.

Mrs. Theuriet, in a statement regarding her efforts to have the de la Forge woman deported, said: "My husband has been in San Francisco with this woman for a long time. I want him to come home to his wife and children. He occasionally sends money for their support, but I believe if she was sent out of the country he would return to his friends."

Theuriet is in charge of the jewelry department at Shreve's, and has a large income.

Meacham's selection from 'Faust,'" "Balf's 'Starlight,'" "D. Cruger's march, 'Always Ready,'" "Bligh's 'Star Spangled Banner'."

BITTEN, BUT WON'T TELL. SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—In a quarrel among small boys at Twenty-second and Vermont streets this morning Barney Flynn, 12 years old, of 1436 San Bruno avenue, was bitten on the left hand. He gamely refused to give the name of the lad who had injured him. He was treated at the Mission hospital.

RECALL FORGERY PROBE CONTINUES

More Witnesses Must Be Called the District Attorney Says.

When the grand jury began to delve into the alleged irregularities of the recent recall petitions circulated against Commissioners Harr, S. Anderson and W. J. Keene yesterday, they found such a maze of peculiarities that they decided the job would take more than the day and after hearing considerable evidence presented by District Attorney Hynes, it was decided to continue the investigation next Tuesday.

Frank W. Mitchell, who conceived the idea of ousting the city commissioners, but who failed to make his petitions hold through a technical oversight, was the principal witness called during the day. After a long examination during the morning he was twice recalled into the grand jury room during the afternoon. His son, Harold W. Mitchell, was also examined, both father and son having been arrested with being named with subpoenas after the grand jury went into session.

Besides the Mitchells there were half a dozen other witnesses called in. They were a few of the two score men who circulated the petition under the employ of Mitchell.

"We are not through with this matter yet," District Attorney Hynes said today. "There is a great deal of testimony which must be gone over and this will require time. For that reason the investigation was continued. There probably will be a number of more witnesses called."

BILL REGULATING AUTO TAXATION IS PASSED. By Associated Press. SACRAMENTO, April 9.—The measure bill regulating automobile taxation was passed by the Assembly today 25 to 2, after an attempt had been made to refer the measure back to the revenue and taxation committee. The bill aims to change the system of licensing and registration. It imposes a registration fee of 2 cents per horsepower on all automobiles, a graduated license scale for auto trucks and a five dollar fee for all electrical machines not used for commercial purposes.

The bill differs with the Birdsall conference bill, which passed the Senate this week, in the matter of raising The Birdsall bill is scheduled to reach the Assembly early next week and the measure assembly bill will go to the Senate committee today.

No other bill were passed during the morning session of the House.

RHYS PRYCE, SOLDIER OF FORTUNE, EXPECTS TO DIE FOR ENGLAND

By Associated Press. LOS ANGELES, April 9.—C. Rhys Pryce, the British soldier of fortune who led a revolt four years ago in Lower California, and recently was reported to have been killed on the battle front in Flanders, sent a letter from England to Edmund Mitchell, president of the British-American League to deny reports of his death.

Pryce said he had seen a paragraph in an American paper reporting his death on the battlefield. "But it is not the first time I have read my obituary," he added, "and, although I expect to get my quietus one day, at the front, we have not gone there yet."

Pryce is with a Canadian contingent. INVESTIGATE SOCIAL INSURANCE. SACRAMENTO, April 9.—An assembly of five to investigate social insurance for the protection of widowed mothers and orphan children is called for in a bill introduced today by Senator Kehoe.

MAYOR MAY ACT TO AVERT STRIKE

Will Be Asked to Divert the Threatened Tie up on United Railroads.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—Mayor James Rolph Jr. is momentarily expected to be asked to take action in connection with the threatened strike on the lines of the United Railroads. The mayor has not so far been consulted or appealed to either by the unions or the investigating supervisors on the one hand or President Lillenthal of the United Railroads on the other.

Superior Vogelsang, who was appointed to investigate conditions, did not make his report this morning as was expected. Yesterday President Lillenthal blamed the agitation on a man who, he said, had started the railroad trouble in Seattle. He denied that most of the men were organized and would walk out on rail and said that the places of all those discharged had been filled.

W. E. GIBSON ADDRESSES AUDIENCE IN ELMHURST

The W. E. Gibson press committee presents the following report: An audience of over 40 residents of Elmhurst greeted W. E. Gibson, candidate for mayor at the Elmhurst, Calif., election, last evening. Mr. Gibson stated that he believed the time had arrived for all fair-minded citizens, having the welfare of Oakland at heart, to unite in supporting W. E. Gibson at the polls, because he was the man best qualified for the position of mayor; that as the chief executive officer of the city he would represent the people at all of the time and would not indulge in the pastime of constructing a political machine; that there has been too much of this sort of thing during the past ten years and not enough real service to the taxpayers of the city.

Gibson was well received and was received with prolonged applause. He told his audience in plain, straightforward language what he believed the city must do to reduce the present high tax rate. The administration forces and the machine candidate for mayor apologize for the present tax rate and say that it cannot be reduced. "I say it can and must be reduced. I want to see Oakland become a great manufacturing center. I want to see thousands of men employed where only hundreds are now employed and I want them all to receive a fair wage."

"When our laboring men receive employment every day in the week the city must become prosperous and every citizen and every resident of the city must prosper. That's the condition I wish to see brought about and I want you, my friends, to help me do it."

"I want to see our waterfront developed. Nearly five years ago we voted $2,500,000 worth of bonds for the development of our waterfront. The sum of money we were to receive wharves at which deep-sea-going vessels could land. We were to have a belt line railway. Today, although that large sum of money has been expended, a schooner cannot be landed on the western waterfront."

The present city administration has been so busy building its political machine that it has not had time to fully carry out the plans of the city. And the political machine is now doing every thing in its power to prevent my election as mayor because the machine politicians know that I would give the city of Oakland a clean, able administration; that I would reduce the tax rate and make the strongest effort to cause the wheels of industry to hum in Oakland."

Presidential Chair Goes to Collection

By Associated Press. WASHINGTON, April 9.—The headquarters chair used by General William T. Sherman from 1869 to 1890, while commander-in-chief of the United States army, and the arm chair used by President Garfield during his term at the White House have been added to the historic furniture collection of the American University here.

John Lamonte Hurst of Denver, son of the late Bishop Hurst, donated the chairs, which are authenticated by original official documents.

A reception committee, headed by Bob Fitzsimmons, met the champion at the railroad station and ushered him out to the automobile through the entrance reserved for the use of the president of the United States.

MOVIE ACTRESS GIVEN DIVORCE FROM HUSBAND

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—Mrs. Clara Stockdale, moving picture actress, testified to the alleged desertion of her husband, Carl Stockdale, motion picture director, and was granted a decree of divorce by Superior Judge Flood this morning. The marriage was entered into in Sacramento in 1908 and they separated four years later.

In the same court Arthur Van Buren was haled before the bench to show cause why he had not paid $30 a month to his wife Hazel Van Buren. She testified that they were married in 1914 and separated a year later, he never having contributed to her support. Van Buren is an actor playing at a local theater.

FAMILY FOUND ON VERGE OF STARVATION

ST. LOUIS, April 9.—Following the receipt of a personal letter by Chief of Police Young signed "Tour Starving Neighbor," the Chief Wednesday ordered an investigation which resulted in saving the family of T. H. Rhyme, a chief of 2100 Allen avenue, from eviction and starvation. Food enough for several days was provided, and Thursday efforts are being made to obtain medical treatment for the wife and daughter and to find a job for Rhyme.

Rhyme, in his appeal to the Chief, said he was eager to work at "anything" to provide for his family. Patrolman Saller, Southern Street station, was sent to investigate.

Saller found Rhyme, 30 years old; his wife, Ella, 29; a son, Theodore, 7, and a daughter, Andrea, 4 months old, in destitute circumstances. The wife and daughter had been ill since the baby's birth. The rent was a month in arrears and 15 cents was all the money on hand.

Rhyme said he had been employed in a cafe at 1717 Market street until March 8, when the manager obtained a man at cheaper wages without first asking Rhyme if he would work for less money. He had sought work in vain since.

DEPRESSION IN CITIES UNKNOWN IN COUNTRY

LEBANON, Pa., April 9.—Several hundred thousand dollars changed hands in this city today in the observance of "annual settlement day," which custom still is observed, more particularly by the residents of the country districts.

In the day's transactions it was shown that while there has been a continued industrial and financial depression in the city, the farmer has not felt the hard times to any appreciable extent and today showed that he is possessed of considerable means for investment in real estate.

The buying mostly was of farm land at an increased valuation. The number of transactions embracing city holdings comparatively was small.

GRAND JURY'S
'SPIDER MAN'
SOUGHTDetectives Explore Airshaft in Connection With Chief Sebastian's Case.

BULLETIN.
LOS ANGELES, April 9.—Victoria Despente, one of the two delinquent girls who made the original charges which caused the county grand jury to investigate the moral conduct of Charles E. Sebastian, chief of police, went to judge Taft of the superior court today and told him that the whole affair was a "frame-up."

LOS ANGELES, April 9.—Believing that the grand jury secrets have been stolen by a mysterious eavesdropper suspended from a beam in the airshaft between the roof of the Hall of Records and the grand jury room on the top floor, District Attorney Woolwine sent detectives into the shaft with electric flash lamps in search of some clue to the man's identity.

After their first inspection the detectives reported that they had found the imprint of a man's hand in the dust on the rafters, but had not found any clear finger prints.

How long the mysterious "spider man" occupied the air shaft while the grand jury was in session, Woolwine declared he did not know.

A clash between the district attorney and the attorneys for Chief Sebastian, incurred on a contributing charge, occurred when Attorney H. L. Giesler, representing Sebastian, made a demand in writing upon District Attorney Woolwine that he show his hand and deliver copies of the statements of the witnesses before the grand jury. Giesler declared heatedly that if the evidence was not delivered by Saturday he would demand an explanation in court and an order from the judge for testimony. Woolwine replied:

"The law does not require me to deliver the testimony until five days before the trial. I will not deliver it until then."

HEAR SOMETHING FALL.
The first intimation that someone was above the room, Woolwine declared, was gained Monday by the grand jury when a block of wood or a small board was heard to fall, apparently from Mrs. Louis Miller, proprietress of the Arizona rooming house, prior to the purchase of the lease by the present proprietress, Mrs.
Florence M. Wilber.

Mrs. Miller is to be questioned to learn if she is the author of the alleged violation of Chief Sebastian to the house.

Assistant District Attorney Dean today stated that Mrs. Wilber knows nothing of any of the alleged events in the "mystery room" and that she so stated to the grand jury. Dean further asserted that her statement was not questioned by the grand jury.

When questioned about evidence to corroborate the story told by Miss Serkin, Dean would not state whether or not such evidence had been obtained.

SEBASTIAN SUSPENDED.
The police commission today took formal action on the request of Chief Sebastian that he be suspended until after the trial of his case and his suspension was voted today at a special meeting of the commission. Sebastian has not acted as head of the department since the indictment accusing him of having contributed to the delinquency of Miss Edith Serkin.

When returned, Captain Flanner has been performing the duties of the chief.

In a statement issued at the Sebastian defense headquarters Attorney Giesler
today said:

"We will plead not guilty Saturday and ask for a trial before the end of next week. I have demanded a copy of the testimony taken before the grand jury
as the law authorizes me to do.

"I do not fear the outcome. But anyone knows that it is far easier to make charges than it is to disprove them."

In support of her claim that the charges against herself and Sebastian are due to a desire on the part of relatives to get Edith Serkin away from her, Mrs. Lily Pratt today declared that her trunk had been broken open, apparently with an

FIRST GOLD FROM ITS HILLS.

TRIBUNE BUREAU, Panama, Pacific Exposition, April 9.—A regular old fashioned picnic, with basket lunches, ball games and all, will be staged at the Panama-Pacific Exposition tomorrow when Sierra and Plumas counties gather for their annual reunion. This also is the date of the joint dedications of these two counties and the counties of Alpine and El Dorado. Large preparations are being made for the double event.

Last year Sierra and Plumas held their reunion in Berkeley and had an attendance of nearly 1500. With the Exposition as an added attraction this year, it is expected that the enrollment will pass this number.

Says Fairs Will Double
State's Population

By Associated Press.
SAN DIEGO, April 9.—The Panama-California Exposition here and the Panama-Pacific Exposition will result in a great influx of easterners to California for several years after the close of the Expositions, according to Senator Harry Lane of Oregon, a visitor.

"The population of California should double within three years. The eastern-er will see advantages you have overlooked," Senator Lane said.

Senator Lane, Congressman J. J. Fitzgerald of New York and Jules Allard, Minister of Lands and Forest for the Province of Quebec, Canada, were today the guests of President C. A. Davidson of the Exposition.

axe, and every letter written her about
Edith Serkin had been carried away.

Mrs. Pratt declares that she was sure that agents of a certain close relative who has been endeavoring to get the custody of Edith Serkin, split the trunk open because the letters taken were only those which she wanted to keep as evidence in case another attempt was made through the courts by his relative to get Miss Serkin.

It was reported, however, that Thaw was anxious for a jury trial on the sanity issue, regardless of the decision of the appellate division on the question of his return to New Hampshire.

"PEEPING TOM" CAUGHT;
ADMITS HE IS GUILTY

William Jones, arrested last night in an alley on suspicion of burglary, confessed after being taken to the police station that he was watching a young woman through a window
when she was in the act of robbing.
The young man was held for further investigation.

The police were notified by Floyd Baker, 805 Eleventh street, that somebody had been seen in the alleyway between 805 and 810 Eleventh street. Patrolman Garvin was sent to the place, and arrested the young man, who gave the name of Jones.
He was panic stricken at being arrested, and explained that he had discovered that the person in the alley could get a view of a certain window of a bedroom in the neighborhood.

MINORS BUY LIQUOR;
POLICE MAY PROBE

The arrest of Joe Gonvea, 19 years of age, and Russell Fliton, 18 years, for drunkenness, has led to an investigation of the alleged sale of liquor to Gonvea by the Hink & Peterson saloon, Twenty-third avenue and East Fourteenth street. The matter may be brought to the attention of Commissioner of Public Health and Safety F. C. Turner.

It is alleged that Gonvea, who works for a lumber company, purchased a case of beer from the saloon.
Hink informed Captain Charles Rock that he had sold liquor to Gonvea, as the young man had told him that he was 21 years of age.

WAR VETERANS TO MEET.
ALAMEDA, April 9.—Barrett Camp, of the United Spanish War Veterans club, will be held at San Francisco, Alameda avenue and Park street. Delegates to the 15th department convention will be held at San Francisco, May 12 and 13, will be non-members. All members are urged to be in attendance.

FOUND TRYING DOORS;
SAYS HE'S FROM ASYLUM

The police last night arrested a man who gave the name of Joseph Jager at Fourteenth and Washington streets for trying the doors of the stores along Washington street. The arrest was made by Patrolman John Gannaw and Special Policeman Goodwin.

Jager told the police he had been arrested in San Jose for attempted burglary, had been sent to the Agnew asylum and had escaped from that institution.

MINOR ROBBERIES.
A burglar broke into the basement at 2317 San Pablo avenue last night and forced open trunks belonging to Mrs. G. A. Clark and Mrs. G. H.
Howell. A watch, a suit and several other articles of value were stolen.
Mrs. Nora Holloran, 816 Union street, reported to the police that her home was entered during the night. Two watches and silverware were stolen.

GOOD-BY KISS
FOLLOWED
BY SUICIDE

Insurance Man Bids His Wife
Farewell, Goes to Office,
Shoots Himself.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—With a kiss and a cherry "Good-bye" for his wife as he parted from her in front of the Lincoln building, Fifth
and Market streets, this morning,
William Egard, an insurance agent,
walked rapidly away, went to his office on the sixth floor in the Chronicle building and committed suicide. A few moments later he was found lying at the foot of his desk with a gunshot wound in the right temple and with a note previously prepared lying by his side.

Egard for years was employed by the Providence Life and Trust Insurance Company, but recently had associated himself with the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company of Philadelphia.

In the note he tells of illness and describes the separation from his wife, who has recently been employed in the wholesale millinery establishment of Hinz & Langt, 883 Market street. Egard escorted his wife to her work, parted from her at 3:30
and almost immediately killed himself. He gave her no intimation of what he proposed to do.

He left two notes, one to his wife,
sealed, and the other "To my friends
and the public," which reads: "I am in such a distressing mental, physical and financial condition that life has become a burden to me and I fear I would soon be a burden to others, so I am taking my life to escape such a fate. No blame of any kind is to be charged to my darling wife, who is and always has been a pure and lovable woman and a true helpmate
and faithful wife to me and any one who should attempt to lay blame on her is doing her great injury."

"I had I been half as good a husband we would be happy and prosperous now. I make this statement because of the fact that owing to my bad conduct we recently lived apart
a few months, but Mrs. Egard forgave me and took me back and for the past three months, except for financial troubles and my impaired health,
we have been very happy."

"WILLIAM EGARD."
The Egard home is at 1205 Tenth avenue. Dr. J. J. Leland took charge of the body.

VILA'S DEFEAT
COSTS 3000 MEN

It is Officially Announced That Obregon's Troops Are Pursuing Forces.

VERA CRUZ, April 9.—Extra editions
of the local newspapers yesterday announced that General Obregon's reported victory near Celaya cost the Villa forces
3000 men killed or wounded.

It is officially announced that General
Obregon's troops are continuing the pursuit of Villa forces, and that Obregon will push forward his headquarters to Tra-pazaco without loss of time.

The reports of the Carranza victory
caused rejoicing at headquarters here,
and during the greater part of the day
the ringing of church bells and the music of marching bands apprised the public of the Villa defeat.

CAN RETURN TO YUCATAN.
NEW ORLEANS, La., April 9.—Residents of Yucatan who fled when their state recently was occupied by Carranza military forces may return if they can prove they are not involved in any conspiracy against the Carranza government.

This information was received here today from General Salvador Alvarado, military governor of Yucatan. In reply to cablegrams asking on what terms members of the large refugee colony here
would be permitted to return.

PROTEST MINING LAW.
EL PASO, Tex., April 9.—George C.
Carothers, American State Department
agent with General Villa, has been instructed by the State Department to make "urgent protest" to General Villa
regarding the recent amendments to the Mexican mining law which his government has adopted, according to authentic unofficial advices received here. A committee, representing local mining men,
recently protested against the amendment
in a telegram to the State Department,
in which it was asserted that the amendment would result in the eventual confiscation of all foreign-owned property.

GOOD-BY KISS
FOLLOWED
BY SUICIDEInsurance Man Bids His Wife
Farewell, Goes to Office,
Shoots Himself.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—With
a kiss and a cherry "Good-bye" for his wife as he parted from her in front of the Lincoln building, Fifth
and Market streets, this morning,
William Egard, an insurance agent,
walked rapidly away, went to his office on the sixth floor in the Chronicle building and committed suicide. A few moments later he was found lying
at the foot of his desk with a gunshot wound in the right temple and with a note previously prepared lying by
his side.

Egard for years was employed by
the Providence Life and Trust Insurance Company, but recently had associated himself with the Penn Mutual Life Insurance Company of Philadelphia.

In the note he tells of illness and describes the separation from his wife, who has recently been employed in the wholesale millinery establishment of Hinz & Langt, 883 Market street. Egard escorted his wife to her work, parted from her at 3:30
and almost immediately killed himself. He gave her no intimation of what he proposed to do.

He left two notes, one to his wife,
sealed, and the other "To my friends
and the public," which reads: "I am
in such a distressing mental, physical
and financial condition that life has become a burden to me and I fear I would soon be a burden to others, so
I am taking my life to escape such a fate. No blame of any kind is to be charged to my darling wife, who
is and always has been a pure and
lovable woman and a true helpmate
and faithful wife to me and any one who should attempt to lay blame on
her is doing her great injury."

"I had I been half as good a husband we would be happy and prosperous now. I make this statement
because of the fact that owing to my
bad conduct we recently lived apart
a few months, but Mrs. Egard forgave me and took me back and for the past three months, except for financial troubles and my impaired health,
we have been very happy."

"WILLIAM EGARD."
The Egard home is at 1205 Tenth avenue. Dr. J. J. Leland took charge
of the body.

VILA'S DEFEAT
COSTS 3000 MEN

It is Officially Announced That Obregon's Troops Are Pursuing Forces.

VERA CRUZ, April 9.—Extra editions
of the local newspapers yesterday announced that General Obregon's reported victory near Celaya cost the Villa forces
3000 men killed or wounded.

It is officially announced that General
Obregon's troops are continuing the pursuit of Villa forces, and that Obregon will push forward his headquarters to Tra-
pazaco without loss of time.

The reports of the Carranza victory
caused rejoicing at headquarters here,
and during the greater part of the day
the ringing of church bells and the music of marching bands apprised the public of the Villa defeat.

CAN RETURN TO YUCATAN.
NEW ORLEANS, La., April 9.—Residents of Yucatan who fled when their state recently was occupied by Carranza
military forces may return if they can prove they are not involved in any conspiracy against the Carranza government.

This information was received here today from General Salvador Alvarado,
military governor of Yucatan. In reply to cablegrams asking on what terms members of the large refugee colony here
would be permitted to return.

PROTEST MINING LAW.
EL PASO, Tex., April 9.—George C.
Carothers, American State Department
agent with General Villa, has been instructed by the State Department to make "urgent protest" to General Villa
regarding the recent amendments to the Mexican mining law which his government has adopted, according to authentic unofficial advices received here. A committee, representing local mining men,
recently protested against the amendment
in a telegram to the State Department,
in which it was asserted that the amendment would result in the eventual confiscation of all foreign-owned property.

Operation Not Needed

Mrs. W. A. Barnes, who lives in Ballard, Calif., has sent to the Pine Laboratories a very strong endorsement of Fruitola and Trazo. In her letter, Mrs. Barnes says:

"Doctors say gall-stones cannot be cured without an operation, costing much money as well as unnecessary suffering. I am cured, I know, and this is proof positive, and my friends know that such is the case."

Fruitola is a powerful lubricant for the intestinal organs, softening the hardened particles that cause so much suffering and expelling the congested waste in an easy, natural manner. A single dose is usually sufficient to clearly indicate its efficacy. Trazo is a splendid tonic alternative that acts on the liver and kidneys, stimulates the flow of gastric juices to aid digestion, and removes bile from the general circulation. Trazo should be taken three or four times a day following a dose of Fruitola to strengthen and restore the weakened, run-down system.

For the convenience of the public, arrangements have been made to supply Fruitola and Trazo through leading drug stores. In Oakland they can be obtained at the stores of The Owl Drug Co.

MIRABILE DICTU! JUDGE

WANTS PLACE ABOLISHED

REDDING, Cal., April 9.—Superior partner of the superior court, Judge J. E. Barber telegraphed today to the Governor Johnson at Sacramento advising him to sign the bill abolishing the court in which Judge Barber now sits.

Judge Barber, who was replying to it by the people.

Barber's request for his opinion, said that he always has opposed the creation of the court, and the continuance of the second division of the superior court, he believed it unnecessary. He has stated in the past that the court was created through the efforts of lawyers and politicians, and that it was a waste of money.

CONVICT WORK BILL TELLS OF TRIP TO FIND HIS NAME

Signature of Governor to Authorize Prison Labor on State Roads.

By Associated Press.

SACRAMENTO, April 9.—Convict labor on state highways in California, said to have proven very successful in Colorado and other states, needs only the signature of Governor Johnson to become an established fact. For the second time the Senate passed the bill by Assemblyman Meek today, 25 to 11. Yesterday it slipped through without discussion, 25 to 1, practically all of its opponents being absent from the Senate chamber. On motion of Senator Wolfe it was reconsidered this morning and in the renewed fight an effort was made to bear the measure on the ground it provided for convict competition against free labor.

"This is only an opening wedge," said Wolfe. "There is no telling to what lengths it may be carried and it is dangerous experiment for the state to undertake."

Senators Benson, Thompson, Mott and Owens argued for the bill on grounds of economy to the state and the chance it would give convicts to rehabilitate themselves for return to society through the wholesome influences of open air work.

It is the intent of State Highway Commissioner C. F. Stern, originator of the scheme, to take the convicts into mountainous districts and open up back country by adequate highways.

An interesting feature of the discussion was a declaration by Senator Stenbridge, chairman of the finance committee, who advocated the bill on the ground of state economy.

"There will not be any money for road bills at this session," he said. "There may be a little for surveys and to fill up a few holes, but practically every road appropriation will be refused."

The noon were cast by Benson, Cohn, Crowley, Finn, Flaherty, Gerdie, Luce, Lybn, Scott, Wolfe and Hans.

For the second time the Senate passed the bill by Assemblyman Meek today, 25 to 11. Yesterday it slipped through without discussion, 25 to 1, practically all of its opponents being absent from the Senate chamber. On motion of Senator Wolfe it was reconsidered this morning and in the renewed fight an effort was made to bear the measure on the ground it provided for convict competition against free labor.

"This is only an opening wedge," said Wolfe. "There is no telling to what lengths it may be carried and it is dangerous experiment for the state to undertake."

Senators Benson, Thompson, Mott and Owens argued for the bill on grounds of economy to the state and the chance it would give convicts to rehabilitate themselves for return to society through the wholesome influences of open air work.

It is the intent of State Highway Commissioner C. F. Stern, originator of the scheme, to take the convicts into mountainous districts and open up back country by adequate highways.

An interesting feature of the discussion was a declaration by Senator Stenbridge, chairman of the finance committee, who advocated the bill on the ground of state economy.

"There will not be any money for road bills at this session," he said. "There may be a little for surveys and to fill up a few holes, but practically every road appropriation will be refused."

The noon were cast by Benson, Cohn, Crowley, Finn, Flaherty, Gerdie, Luce, Lybn, Scott, Wolfe and Hans.

Rises to the Occasion After His First Fall

There was an unhappy usher at one of the Easter weddings, the other night. He began blubbery enough, but his spirits fell, so to speak. It was really the usher who fell, and his spirits descended with him. However, they rose later and he made the speech of the evening.

The usher is a debonair beau of the younger set, who really wasn't a rug that slipped or the door sill that tripped him, and he tumbled at the door of the drawing-room with bridesmaids and bride behind him. With grimace he was caught by the ceremony, and afterward disappeared.

Finally they missed him, and he was found by the best man, disconsolately alone on the back stairs, brooding over the uncertainty of polished floors. Perspiration prevailed, and the rather wretched member of the bridal party took his place at the wedding supper, where the good-natured chaffing of friends restored his poise.

When roasts were proposed he toasted the groom. It was a happy speech, that every one enjoyed, and just before the end the speaker hesitated for a word. There was a just long enough pause, and then he smiled.

"You needn't think I am going to fall down again," he said, and finished his remarks in a gale of laughter and applause.

It was a way to turn a contretemps to account.

WOMAN LOSES MIND: POLICE SEEK IDENTITY

EUGENE, Ore., April 8.—A well-dressed woman, aged about 35 years, and apparently at one time highly intelligent, but who has now completely lost her mind, was taken from a Willamette Pacific train here last evening by the police and turned over to the matron. She is believed to be Miss Jane Stearns, a school teacher of Portland.

A card from the Portland Library Association bearing the name and address, 515 East Forty-second street, North, was found in her grip. The woman can neither talk nor understand those who are talking to her, although she appears to be otherwise in good health.

An effort is being made to communicate with her friends in Portland.

"SWIFTWATER'S" DIVORCEE BRIDE ONCE AGAIN

SAN FRANCISCO, April 8.—Lacking all the spectacular elements that marked her first venture in matrimony when she became the bride of "Swiftwater Bill" (Gates), Mrs. Grace Le More Gates Benson was wedded to Louis A. Goldstone, a San Francisco attorney, at Napa, January 15.

Although the marriage has been known to a few intimate friends for the last few weeks, no intimation of it reached the public until yesterday when Goldstone admitted that the ceremony had taken place.

As Grace Le More the present Mrs. Goldstone won favor with Gates in the Klondike through her ability to keep gracefully through the mazes of more than one fantastic dance.

After a short wedding Mrs. Gates obtained a divorce.

A few years after her divorce, from Gates the present Mrs. Goldstone was married to John A. Benson, a San Francisco land agent, who spent a fortune in endeavoring to secure a claim for land from about seven years ago.

Benson's wounds that her husband was convicted and after serving four years in prison he died.

months of a one-year sentence was released from the Alameda county jail, dying in his wife's arms before reaching home.

"Swiftwater Bill" on the other hand, married two other sisters in the La More family, each of whom obtained a divorce from him.

CREDIT MEN PLAN BIG DEFENSE FUND

Income Will Be Used to Check Schemes of Fraud Experts.

NEW YORK, April 9.—The National Association of Credit Men announced today that circulars are being sent to the 13,000 members of the association throughout the United States, in an effort to raise a fund of $500,000, the income of which is to be used for prosecution of commercial frauds.

J. Harry Tregoe, the secretary-treasurer of the association, has designated April 21 and 23 as the days on which the various branches of the organization are to give special attention to the raising of the fund. This movement grows out of the necessity of combating schemes of fraud which are being carried on to such an extent that the association intends, it is stated, to establish a department of investigation and prosecution, which will co-operate with local associations and aid them with funds.

WOMEN AID PRISONER

Believing that a row started by two women in the corridors of the courthouse late yesterday was done for the purpose of enabling the escape of Edward Stewart, a negro, charged with grand larceny, Deputy Sheriff Al. Moffitt had a lively time of it for a few moments protecting the prisoner and himself as well from the two infuriated assailants. During the scuffle Moffitt held on to his prisoner and one of the women was pushed into a wash basin, from which she emerged with a large scrubbing brush, intent on hitting the man up to her own advantage, but bystanders intervened and Moffitt hurried his prisoner back to the county jail. The case was continued until next week.

PRIVATE HEARINGS FOR MAD PATIENTS

Superior Judges Will Ask the Supervisors for Room in Hospital.

Stirred by the spectacle of persons charged with insanity being forced to undergo transportation through the streets from the emergency hospital to the court house for examinations, the superior judges have decided to ask the supervisors to provide a suitable room at the hospital, where the cases may be heard without subjecting relatives to the ordeal which the present situation involves.

Superior Judge Brown today ordered his courtroom cleared of a large crowd of curious persons who had followed a raving patient, accompanied by four attendants, from the street. Judge Donahue, who was present, suggested that some other way ought to be provided so that court could be held at the hospital. An average of more than a score of insane examinations are held each month. Some of the patients are in pitiable condition, and have to be taken into court on stretchers and in straight jackets. Frequently they shout at the top of their voices, attracting crowds to the embarrassment and humiliation of friends and relatives.

Pietro Constantino, who was taken into custody by the police recently, when he sought to impersonate the famous grand opera singer of that name, who was visiting Oakland, was committed to a State asylum today. When removed from the city prison to the hospital yesterday it required four men to hold him. He attacked Corporal Murphy, inflicting a severe scalp wound. Today he was taken into court on a stretcher. Warden of the Insane Charles Emley has advocated a change in the present proceedings and it is probable that the supervisors will give relief.

ELEVATOR BREAKS LEG.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—James Ellasche of 172 Twenty-second avenue, employed at the California glue works, suffered a broken right leg when an elevator suddenly dropped on him this morning. He was treated at the Potrero Emergency hospital.

SALESWOMEN ARE SOUGHT MUST BE AUTO EXPERTS

MRS. CRYSTAL E. BENEDICT, MOTOR CAR EXPERT, WHO IS AN OAKLAND VISITOR.

Mrs. Crystal Eastman Benedict, whose business it is to go about discovering feminine persons equipped with the qualifications required to make a successful motor saleswoman, is the manager of the Maxwell Saleswomen's Bureau. She says a woman motor demonstrator must "Understand the machinery of an automobile." "Be able to change tires and make minor repairs." "Grasp quickly the points of merit in models new and old." Also she should be finished off with a winning personality, earnestness of purpose, a genuine interest in her customer, and a few other essentials. Mrs. Benedict, who came to Oakland to select a saleswoman with these characteristics, is optimistic about the future of her sex in this field of endeavor.

The innovation has come about, according to Mrs. Benedict, through the president of the motor company which selected her. He held that women ought to succeed in selling machines as well as in buying and driving them. Throughout the United States this company is to have six head saleswomen, who will travel and place local demonstrators with its dealers and superintend their work. Mrs. Benedict has charge of a bureau that will extend eventually to England, Europe, Australia, Canada and, in fact, everywhere where women drive cars.

Before undertaking this department she acted as executive secretary to the New York Employers' Liability Commission, and later handled campaigns for the Political Equality League of Wisconsin. She is known as an authority on workmen's compensation and acknowledges being a graduate of Vassar, Columbia, and the New York University Law School. "Naturally we must use great care in selecting," said Mrs. Benedict. "Thursday night I interviewed thirty-five candidates for the position here. From these the four most likely were Miss Katherine Maxwell, Mrs. Elsie Murdock, Miss Verda Larson and Mrs. Nellie B. Kelly. All these women are expert drivers." In San Francisco Mrs. Benedict appointed Mrs. Evelyn von Dohlen to sell the cars she handles. "Mrs. Dohlen is a very experienced business woman," she remarked. "The head saleswoman for the Pacific Coast district, however, comes from Los Angeles. She is Mrs. Ben Holliday, and she will visit here later." After Mrs. Benedict selects a woman demonstrator for the Peacock Motor Company, which handles the Maxwell cars for Alameda county, she will return to the east immediately to place other women in the new field of activity.

DENTAL BILL IN SUIT. Superior Judge Waste has taken under advisement a suit brought by Dr. Carl W. Schmidt against Henry Wiekling, a wealthy brewer, to recover $800 alleged to be due for a dental bill.

TEAMSTERS' UNION LENDS ENDORSEMENT TO BILGER

The Material Teamsters' Union of Oakland has sent Frank W. Bilger an endorsement of his candidacy for mayor, based on the treatment that Bilger has accorded his teamsters, of which he is one of the largest employers in this city. In all, twelve labor unions and nearly all the officials of unions, as individuals, have endorsed Mr. Bilger.

The Central Oakland Booster Club, which consists of more than 2000 progressive citizens of the amended district, has issued a statement to the public in which it says: "Hon. Frank W. Bilger is the new leader of a new administration. We have made a careful study of all the candidates seeking the office of mayor and have found Mr. Bilger the man best qualified and most worthy of the support of the voters. Mr. Bilger has been a continuous resident of Oakland for thirty years and has done his full share in making Oakland the great city that she is today. It is necessary that a wide business training be placed at the head of the city government. We believe Mr. Bilger to be the man."

RAILROAD TO ABANDON LINE.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—The railroad commission today authorized the Monterey and Del Monte Heights railway to abandon its line. At a recent hearing President Phelps testified that his company had lost $40,000 on the railway venture. The line operates between the city of Monterey and Del Monte Heights.

LUMBERMAN DEAD, PLANS MADE FOR FUNERAL

Arrangements are being made for the funeral of the late Arthur H. Horton, retired capitalist and lumber magnate, who died at the Fabiola Hospital, following a brief illness, yesterday. The deceased, a native of Virginia City, was 46 years of age, and is survived by a widow and a brother, C. E. Horton of Alameda.

Mr. Horton was seized with illness at his home, 531 Crofton avenue, some days ago, and after failing to improve was taken to the hospital. He was at one time the owner of the big lumber mills at Loyalton, and for years had been identified with the lumber interests of California.

MORGAN MANAGER FILES CLAIM AGAINST ESTATE

DENVER, April 9.—Col. J. A. Ownbey sued for an accounting by the executors of the estate of the late J. P. Morgan, has filed in the United States district court an answer in which he makes a claim of $84,000 for services as manager of the Wootton Land and Fuel Company since February 10, 1905 and for $5000 which he says he loaned the corporation. The Morgan executors in their suit alleged that $200,000 of the funds of the company is either unaccounted for or listed under general heads without specific designations. Colonel Ownbey denies all the charges of the complaint.

DODGES NORTH SEA MINE. BUT WRENCHES RUDDER

By Associated Press. NEW YORK, April 9.—In dodging a mine in the North Sea, within twenty miles of Rotterdam, the steamer City of Savannah wrenched her steering gear. Captain Nelson of the freighter reported. The crew was able to make repairs quickly, however. Captain Nelson said that during the early part of the passage here no less than eight airships hovered over the vessel at different times. All, he said, were British craft.

GUAGER SUES WHISKY FIRM FOR BLOOD LOSS

B. A. Malone, a guager for the government, today commenced suit for $1500 damages against the Mason Malt Whisky Distillery company which operated at Pine Station in Marin county. Malone complains that while in pursuit of his duties last September he stumbled over a pile of steel that had been unloaded in a pathway at the plant, cutting his leg with the result that he lost several quarts of blood from the injury.

DRAMA AT CHURCH.

The First Congregational church announces for next Sunday evening, April 11, an unusual program. This will be a dramatic reading of Wilson Barrett's "The Sign of the Cross" by Mr. and Mrs. William Morton Rasmus, dramatic readers and interpreters. Special music by the choir will add to the story, which deals with the persecution of the Christians under Nero.

SOME DON'TS

For Stomach and Liver Sufferers.

Don't take medicine for your Stomach ailments morning, noon and night, as usually such medicines only give temporary relief and simply digest the food that happens to be in the stomach.
